

Area Could Solve Sanitary Line, Treatment Needs at Little Cost

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A proposal under which Granite City may be able to build its $15.3 million secondary sewage system at virtually no cost to the city was outlined to city council members Monday night, but was met, for the time being at least, by a cool reception.

Far more than an hour, officials of the four Quad-City area townships—Granite City, Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau—pointed out to Granite City aldermen the potential advantages of a cooperative plan in which the townships outside Granite City would build their own lateral sewers and then "buy our sewage treatment" from Granite City by hooking into Granite City's treatment system.

The plan, town officials said, is of vital importance to the township area sewer program. Unless Granite City will permit the townships to use Granite City's treatment facilities on a fee basis, construction of another treatment plant to serve the township area would be necessary.

In such case, it was pointed out, it is possible the federal and state governments would balk at approving grants for duplicate facilities.

Convened as the town board prior to the regular council session, aldermen heard details of two separate engineering plans providing sanitary sewers for outlying areas of Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau townships.

Either plan provides for a system of sewer rental fees from the three townships that would, over a period of time, repay Granite City for its initial "local share" outlay necessary for construction of Granite City's secondary sewage treatment plant and the interceptor sewers which must be built within the city.

While representatives of all Quad-City area townships en-phased a willingness to pay "premium" rental fees for use of Granite City treatment facilities, with the understanding that the city of Granite City could collect such fees on a "profit" basis, some members of the council fired questions at the engineers and town officials that indicated they are not yet ready to give a go-ahead to a cooperative, area-wide program.

Representatives of the township group told the aldermen that their people in Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau township would be willing to pay a sewer rental fee, in return for treatment of their sewage flow through the Granite City treatment plant, that would be more than sufficient to repay Granite City for its 20% local share necessary for Granite City's entire anti-water pollution program.

The issue grows out of increased pressure from the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency for development of secondary sewage treatment facilities by cities along the Mississippi River. Substantial state and federal funds have been provided to speed up construction of secondary sewage treatment facilities and specific requirements have been established.

Granite City is required under the Illinois anti-pollution program to complete construction of a secondary sewage treatment plant with interceptor sewers by Dec. 31, 1973. The city, as a result, has retained the M. W. Engineering-Architects, Inc., with offices in St. Louis, to handle its planning, complete the required preliminary reports and prepare applications for state and federal grants.

Other provisions of federal and state programs provide that unincorporated areas of any county may join in a cooperative program involving one or more number of townships to provide sewerage and sewage treatment. Such programs in Illinois are sponsored by the county boards of supervisors.

Authorized Township Plan

As a result, the Madison county board nearly two years ago authorized the first such county project for Granite City, Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau townships, which because they bordered Granite City, could tie in with treatment facilities provided by Granite City. The supervisors of the four townships were named to a special committee to develop a project for sewerage, Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau townships.

Granite City township is not affected by the actual sewer planning since its boundaries are contiguous to the city of Granite City. However, the township government is a part of the combined township's area program to develop the sewer program. Granite City township, like Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau, appropriated $8,000 a year ago to make up a total $12,000 fund to finance engineering plans. The township group retained the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab of Granite City for its planning.

Against this background, the present sewer treatment picture is as follows:

The city of Granite City, faced with a state mandate to

Following the incorporation on Jan. 4, 1896, of the St. Louis, Granite City & Alton Traction Co., the railroad built its yards, offices and powerhouse in Granite City.

On March 21, 1905, the City Council granted a franchise to the Illinois Traction Company (McKinley System), which controlled 300 miles of electric railways.

The franchise provided that Granite City was to be "the terminus of the railway until such time as they shall enter East St. Louis or St. Louis."

Trailer Home, Contents Destroyed in $9,500 Fire

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the mobile home of Mrs. Frieda Tucker, 3051 Sinclair St., early Tuesday, causing damage estimated at $9,500 to the trailer and $3,000 to the contents.

The home was unoccupied at the time as Mrs. Tucker and her three children had stayed overnight at the home of her mother.

Firemen were called at 1:25 a.m., but the fire had caused a severe loss by the time the alarm was given. Firemen were on the scene about an hour and a half and continued an investigation. The property, including the mobile home, is owned by Mrs. Howard Huffman, Rural Route Three, Edwardsville.

There was no apparent explosion as the exterior of the furnace and hot water heater were intact, according to Mrs. Tucker who visited the scene in the morning.

Mrs. Tucker, who is unemployed, said the family lost everything except what they had along.

She and her children, ages 6 months and 8 and 9 years, plan to move to the home of her mother at 2801 Warren Ave. until other arrangements can be made. Her mother was out of town at the time of the fire.

Mrs. Tucker reported Tuesday afternoon that she already had received calls from neighbors who have been helpful.

Fire of unknown origin caused $900 damage to the building and $100 to the contents at the home of Edward Holland, 2337 Lincoln Ave., at 8:10 p.m. Monday. No one was at home at the time.

Burning trash caused damage of $100 to the building and $50 to the contents at the home of Leo Kalpis Jr., 2614 Iowa St., at 12:55 p.m. Monday.

A carburetor backfire caused $50 damage to the auto of Ronald Frazier at 2333 Terminal Ave., at 4:30 p.m. Monday.

County Rushing to Redistrict in June

The Madison County Board of Supervisors will be forced to decide soon on a reapportionment plan as efforts to extend the mandatory July 1 deadline were killed this week in the Illinois House.

A special meeting of the board has been called for 9:30 a.m. Thursday, June 17, to comply with the state reapportionment law, to determine the number of districts in the county and the number of members from each district.

A bill had been introduced in the House but an amendment to the bill reinstated the original July 1 deadline date.

The board's legislative committee has drawn three tentative redistricting plans which have been under consideration by the members.

They are: 29 districts with one member elected from each district; 14 districts with two members from each district; and seven districts with four members from each district. The new law restricts board membership to 29.

The board will hold its regular meeting of the year at 9:30 a.m. Monday to conduct other matters.

Legion Parade, Meetings To Attract Large Crowd

One of the largest parades in the city's history will be presented here Sunday afternoon to climax a two-day convention of the 22nd District of the American Legion.

The parade will form at the high school parking lot and will leave that point at 2 p.m., proceeding down Madison Avenue to the fire station at 23rd Street. The Legion convention Saturday and Sunday will be hosted by Tri-City Legion Post 113.

Units from 33 American Legion posts, five bands and at least nine other units will participate in the parade, which is expected to attract approximately 1,500 American Legion and Auxiliary members of five counties in the 22nd District.

Units will include the famed Black Knights Drum and Bugle Corps of Belleville, the Ains Brass Band, the Bellettes Drum and Bugle Corps, Alton Gunners, the Sharon Yount Baton Twirlers, the Piasa Indians and Granite City High School Marching Band. Lollipops and balloons will be given to children along the parade route.

The reviewing stand will be located at 24th Street and Madison Avenue.

The convention will open at 9 a.m. Saturday with registration for Auxiliary members and ladies' business meetings will be conducted all day.

The highlight of Saturday's activities will be the Commanders' Banquet and Ball, that evening honoring the outgoing district commander, Bob Douglas of Granite City. Ed Scholtz of Chicago, senior vice-commander for the Department of Illinois, will be the guest speaker at the banquet.

Registration for Legion delegates will begin at 9 a.m. Sunday and will be followed by meetings until parade time. The top item of business will be the election of a new district commander and new officers. Delegates to the national convention in Houston also will be chosen.

Nearly 500 delegates and alternates will take part in the convention and the parade.

Additional units wishing to participate in the parade may contact Burt Harris at 877-4021 or may leave a message for Harris at the post at 876-2502.

No-Tax School Referendum in July Studied

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Wein tract of land at Maryville and Nameoki Roads is expected to be utilized for a new high school rather than an elementary school and junior high school. Voters are to be asked to approve the plan at a "free" referendum in July.

The Granite City District Nine board of education indicated at its regular meeting Monday night that the board and most area residents support the high school proposal rather than the previous plan.

A special board meeting was set for Monday, June 14, to discuss the proposal and to set a date for the referendum.

Under the proposal, the $3,600,000 bond money available under a previous bond issue would be combined with funds from a present four cent special education construction tax rate and with state funds for special education rooms to provide $3,850,000 for construction, planning and equipment for a second high school.

"Not Cost a Cent More"

The referendum is necessary to shift the four-cent rate to the new plan.

B. J. Davis, superintendent, told the board members, "I see no reason why the public would not approve this when it is explained that it will not cost them a cent more, only the four-cent rate that is presently being collected."

Supt. Davis said enrollment trends have clearly indicated that the second high school plan is far more feasible than the elementary junior high plan.

The high school that could be built with the $3,850,000 would be lacking in some physical education and music facilities temporarily until funds would become available to build full facilities.

A steel gymnasium in the new school would be converted into a girls' gym and a new boys' gym would be constructed in the future, under the plan.

Music Addition Later

No special music room would be included in the new building but could be added at minimal cost in the future.

Estimates of the cost of the building range from $3,496,800 for construction in architect's figures to $3,238,700 as the district's estimated construction cost. Also included in the total cost are $100,000 for equipment and $211,250 architectural fees.

An estimated $188,000 from the four-cent rate collected in 1971 and 1972 could be added to the $3,000,000 bond issue monies for a total of $3,788,000 toward the building's cost, with the remaining $91,000 available from the state.

Board support for the high school plan came after a redistricting committee reported reaction from parent groups

He said that State officers recommended only that the problems be resubmitted to the Madison school board.

intensity sewage treatment and complete construction of a new secondary plant within the next two and a half years, plans construction of the secondary treatment plant, additional interceptors and provisions to handle stormwater overflow in a program that has been planned by the M.W. engineering firm at an estimated cost of $15.3 million.

Double Original Cost
The original cost estimate made by Mayor Donald Partney early this year when the state advanced its deadline for secondary treatment facilities from 1975 to the 1973 limit. Mayor Partney had estimated $7.5 as the total cost.

The township group, on the other hand, plans to build lateral sewers to serve the more heavily populated areas of Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau townships, with the interceptors that could be built to the Granite City limits and hook in with Granite City interceptors that would carry the sewage to the present treatment plant and, later, through the secondary plant after it is completed.

Unless the township sewer lines were allowed to tie in with Granite City treatment facilities, the township plan would require the construction of separate sewage treatment facilities. This would require a substantial increase in cost and, as was pointed out in the meeting Monday night, undoubtedly would result in refusal of the federal and state governments to grant funds for duplicate facilities.

Purpose of Monday night's meeting by the township officials with city council members was to obtain city approval of a "letter of intent" of the city's willingness to cooperate with the townships in development of an areawide program. Such letter of intent is required by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council to clear the way for more advanced planning of the township program.

Representing the townships at the Monday meeting were Nelson Hagnauer, Supervisor of Granite City township; Arthur W. "Cooper" Moore, supervisor of Venice township; Louis Whitsell, supervisor of Nameoki township; Walter Sparks, supervisor of Chouteau township; Harold Landolt of Alhambra, chairman of the county board; William Schooley, attorney for the township group, and Edward Jeneau of the Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab engineering firm.

Thirteen of the 14 Granite City aldermen attended. Only absentee was Paul Schuler who informed the city clerk he could not be present because of a death in the family.

Engineer Explains Plan
Ray C. Haller, vice-president of the M.W. engineering firm, representing Granite City, explained details of a plan under which the city would sponsor construction of interceptors lines outside the city boundaries to connect with laterals built by the townships. He said that under the overall Development Program of Granite City prepared by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, Granite City may extend its services up to a mile and a half outside its limits.

Haller favored the township connection with Granite City treatment facilities, pointing out that sewage treatment facilities must be planned in the future to take into account eventual growth of the area. He told the meeting that the present planning indicates the boundaries of Granite City eventually will extend to Interstate 270 and Route 111 "which are natural boundaries for expansion."

plain interceptor line service to various areas of the outlying township districts. Haller recommended the council go along with the township plan and "that you give them the service of your treatment plant and, later, the secondary plant."

Haller said the fees that would be paid by sewer users in the three outlying townships eventually would offset the amount of the city's local share of its own program and thereby provide the Granite City program without charge to the city.

Under present planning, the city is anticipating 50% of the cost of its secondary sewage treatment program to be financed by federal grants, with an additional 30% coming from the state's $750 million bond issue approved by referendum last November. This would leave a 20%—or about $3 million—local share to be financed by the city.

"Paint a Pretty Picture"

Alderman Walter Norn interrupted Haller with the remark that "you paint a pretty picture about how the people would get a break with someone picking up the cost . . . but there's a lot of questions to be answered. You'd never sell this idea in my area."

Norn asked Haller if the sewer program would take care of the water discharge from Granite City Steel Co. (65 million gallons daily now going into Horseshoe Lake). Haller replied that industrial accommodations cannot be included in planning city sewer programs since "the federal government will not grant funds to take care of industrial problems."

Then what are you going to tell Granite City Steel Co. who can't come into the picture, outside of the city? Norn asked. "After all, Granite City Steel is in the city," he added. Alderman Steve Basarich asked why the territory outside the city "can't be annexed and become a part of the city."

He added that "there's not much incentive for Granite City to grow any more."

Jeneau, representing the townships as an engineer, explained that the townships, in contrast to the M.W. engineering plan calling for Granite City construction of interceptors lines to points well outside the city limits, are willing to finance construction of all laterals and interceptors lines to the Granite City limits.

"This would reduce considerably the cost of interceptor lines now planned by the city," Jeneau said. He pointed out that the plan for construction of the township sewers, like that for Granite City's treatment plant, would be eligible for federal and state grants. Norn asked Jeneau:

"What do you think would be a fair rental fee (for those sewer users outside Granite City)? We know that the 50-cent fee (paid by Granite City users) is out the window."

Pay Premium Rental
The county (township plan) would expect to pay a premium rate because they are outside the city," Jeneau replied.

"Then Venice and Madison (cities) should have come into Granite City a long time ago," Norn replied.

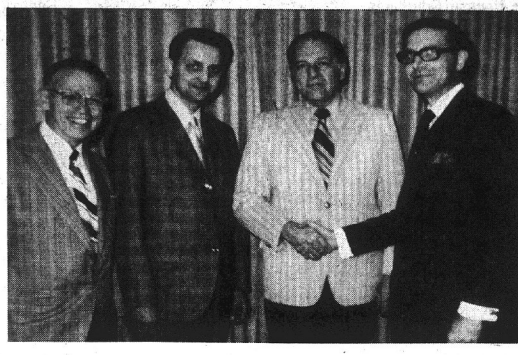

Sparks told the meeting, in further response to Norn's question:

"What we would consider a fair rental (for residents in the townships) would be based on an overall cost based on what we would have had to pay if we had to build our own treatment plant. We realize we would have a higher bill than you because we wouldn't have our own plant. Such a fee would have to be negotiated."

Schooley explained that the immediate problem was a letter of intent from the city indicating the city is willing to consider use of the treatment plant for township sewage disposal. He explained such a letter if intent was not binding and that it would indicate that the city was willing to "sit down and work out an agreement."

As the discussion appeared to produce little affirmative reaction by a majority of the council, Jeneau said:

"If Granite City should decide not to sell us treatment, we must plan our own program and there necessarily would have to be two treatment plants. I am sure that the government (state and federal) and we would fight this. We are praying for the cooperation of the city of Granite City. The county eventually would pay for your full 20%, cost in your own program and would build and size the sewers in our area to meet future needs to the point that Granite City never would have to build any more interceptors sewers."

Alderman Thomas Boker called a halt to the lengthy discussion with the remark that "we could be here all night talking about this and not get anywhere."

Boker said he believed that a meeting such as that Monday night was "too unwieldy" and that more could be accomplished in a later meeting between committees representing the city and the township group.

While no definite action was taken by the aldermen, still in session as the town board, it was understood generally that Mayor Partney will name a city council committee to meet with a committee representing the township officials.

The session ended on a sour note when Whitsell asked for the floor and remarked that Granite City's reception of the matter "isn't exactly an example of the Good Neighbor policy."

Boker charged that such a remark was "mud slinging" and Granite City already has enough problems from Nameoki drainage.

No date was set for another meeting. It was the longest town board meeting on record in many years. Customarily the town board meeting is a medium only for approval of township bills and seldom lasts more than five minutes.

Soft contact lenses were the topic of a presentation by Dr. Robert Koetting, contact lens specialist, and Dr. James Streiter, contact lens manufacturer, at a regular meeting of the Southwestern Illinois Optometric Society in the Illinois Room of the University Center at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

Fred Marvin, executive director of the Vision Conservation Institute of Illinois, also addressed the meeting, explaining community visual screening programs he has initiated with the aid of service clubs in several areas of the state.

Under the program, visual screenings are free to the public and many who are not aware of their visual problems may have eye examinations to alert them to the problems. The slogan of the non-profit institute is, "anything less than vision at its best is a form of blindness."

Dr. Leo A. Roman, president of the society, conducted a short business meeting at which Dr. Benjamin Rose, vice-president, discussed the vision services charter and how it may provide family eye care for members on a continual basis at a reduced cost.

Contract to Be Signed with New Bus Contractor

The Granite City District board of education, meeting Monday night, authorized Superintendent Carl Maclos and Secretary George Moore to sign the School Transportation, Inc., contract for bus services for the 1971-72 school year.

This is the first time Bi-State Transit has been underhanded since purchasing the former Community Coach line which served the district. The low bid this spring, from School Transportation, listed a daily base rate of $1,467 plus $4.25 per hour and 35 cents per mile for additional service, charter trips not included.

The board voted to request one-year extensions of time for six school buildings to complete work outlined in the Illinois Life Safety Code surveys. All major remodeling work has been completed but several minor tasks remain at the high school and at Emerson, McKinley, Mitchell, Nameoki and Webster schools.

Approval was granted for Paul Kindle, a teacher at Parkview School, to attend a four-week Region V summer institute as a representative of the Granite City Service and Demonstration Center, and a Creative Problem Solving Institute June 18-26 in Buffalo, N. Y. The trips will cost about $200 and will be paid from the demonstration center budget.

Authorize New Programs
The board granted permission to Sup't. B. J. Davis to enter into contracts with the Granite City School of Beauty Culture and Joseph's School of Hair Fashions. The schools will conduct cosmetology training for high school girls at the beauty schools.

The contract with Joseph's will be a new program. Last year's contract with the Granite City School of Beauty Culture is being renewed. The cost per student will remain at $450 for five semesters, $200 of which is reimbursable from the state. Approximately 100 students are expected to participate in the program.

GCIS Fire Repairs Pending
It was announced that only minor differences remain between the district's inspection report on fire damage at Granite City High School and the inspection report of Ray Edwards, St. Louis, an adjuster. Sup't. Davis said that as soon as all differences have been resolved and the district can reach an agreement with the insurance company, bids will be sought for repair work.

Facilities at the high school will be made available July 6-10 for an afternoon course in Contemporary Educational Theory, conducted by Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, for the staff of the school district.

July Wrestling Tourney
The high school cafeteria will be made available Sept. 30 to the Madison County School Food Service Association for "buzzer" night and use the gymnasium annex July 17 was granted to Coach William Schmitt to host an annual May-Daley Youth Football wrestling tournament.

Approval was given to Granite City Township to utilize Washington School as a polling place for the June 22 East Side Levee and Sanitary District election.

Official letter forms were revised for notifying first-year and second-year teachers, those on extended probationary periods, those completing probationary employment and those reaching tenure of their status.

A gift of $175 from sixth grade classes at Parkview School for an amplifying system for the school and a $200 gift from the school's PTA for room games and recess equipment were accepted by the board.

Store hours will be 9:30 a.m. until 7 p.m., Monday through Saturday. The store will be closed on Sunday.

MORE ABOUT River Bridge

new residents to Granite City between 1905 and 1910. The original Niedringhaus plant was built in these years and the city began to overflow on all sides.

Many of the newcomers were Macedonian and Bulgarian immigrants who settled in Hungary Hollow and got jobs as unskilled workers.

The Macedonian and Bulgarian population was so large by 1907 (estimated at more than 5,000) that the Federal Immigration Commission included Granite City in its survey of "melting pots."

The commission found that 95% of Bulgarians and Macedonians earned less than $300 annually and 21% less than $200.

The average number of occupants to each room in Hungary Hollow was 2.78. Such overcrowding was due to a system of tenancy based on the immigrants' extreme thrift, their very low incomes, and the cupidity of Macedonian and Bulgarian "kings."

The kings owned the cottages and "mercantile houses" in which most of their countrymen lived. The cottages, according to the commission, usually had: "Three rooms, although some had scattered here and there have four rooms. In each of these cottages twelve to sixteen men live, paying a rent of from $14 to $16 per month."

"Multiplying these amounts by twelve to get the annual rents, they are found to be $168 and $92 respectively. The cottages are very similar to but not so good as those for which southern cotton mill operatives pay rent of $3 to $3.50 per month."

In some cottages the men each took turns doing the housework and cooking; in others, they hired a woman and pro-rated the costs. The latter was known as the "boarding boss" plan.

Mercantile houses were large two and three-story buildings akin to hotels. The lower floor contained shops where the immigrants could buy food, liquor, clothing and, in some instances, real estate or a steamship ticket to Europe.

The upper floors were divided into cell-like rooms which two or more persons shared. A monthly rental of from $5 to $8. One mercantile house had 45 rooms and 200 roomers.

In summing up the housing situation, the commission declared:

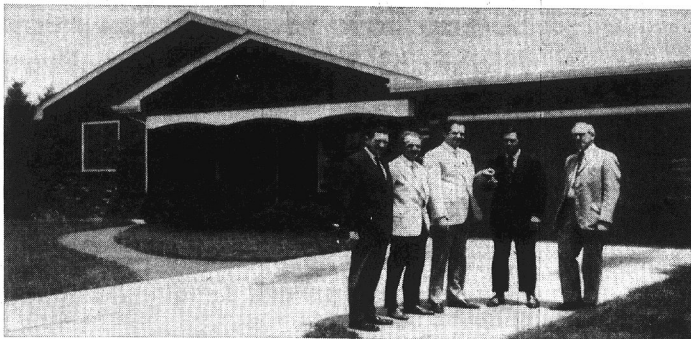

"... It seems clear that although the recent immigrant's per capita outgo for rent is small because he lives in a crowded condition, yet the rent he pays by groups or families is excessive and yields an unusually large rate of return to the landlord."

The depression of 1907 created great distress in Hungary Hollow and it is quite likely that the name of the section was twisted to grim "Hungry Hollow" at that time. Hundreds of jobs moved from Granite City, others "going on the road."

East Granite was attached to Granite City in April, 1908 following a petition from residents of the area. The annexation extended the city limits north to the north lines of Sections 17 and 18, east to Nemooki Avenue, and south-east to Edwardsville Road.

Although free mail delivery had been inaugurated in Granite City on Nov. 1, 1906, the service was not begun in East Granite until January 1912.

In the interim, a post office was maintained at Fred Lindley's grocery store.

Taking advantage of the Local Option Law which the General Assembly had enacted in 1907, church groups and members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union campaigned throughout the spring of 1908 to "dry up" the Tri-Cities.

"On the day before the election, the issue, women and children marched through Granite City, carrying banners inscribed with such slogans as "No Booze and More Shoes," "Kill Old King Alcohol," and "Must We Become Drunkards?"

"When the parade entered the business section, as reported in the Press-Record, "... Many roughnecks fell in line at the rear. They mimicked the parade and made repeated efforts to disband it."

"One of the men picked up a broken basket from the street and hurled it into the crowd of little ones. The roughnecks were persuaded to get out of line."

"Later they formed a parade of their own and marched on State Street. Two of the men carried beer kegs and a number of wash tubs were used for drums."

The Drays were defeated and Granite City remained wet, although not nearly so wet as nearby towns. There were only about 30 saloons in the city. This moderate number was due to a Niedringhaus-motivated ordinance which required consent of two-thirds of the property owners before a saloon could be opened in any one block.

William F. Niedringhaus died in St. Louis on July 9, 1908. He was seventy-three years old.

Records, Pickling, Steam Topics at GC Steel Hearing

Herbert L. Caplan, who called Granite City Steel Co. air purify promises "mostly hot air" last week, resumed his attack on the 5,500-employee steel producer today.

The hearing on air pollution charges against the firm is continuing this afternoon and will open again at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow on the third floor of the City Hall in Granite City. Sessions also may be held June 17 and 18.

Prosecutor Caplan, an assistant state attorney general representing the Environmental Protection Agency, accused GC Steel today of withholding documents, particularly those relating to employment and maintenance.

The charge was denied by GC Steel Vice-President Donald Cairns, who said many records have been provided and others are not in summary form.

"You are welcome to come over and look through our files," Cairns told Caplan this morning.

Questioned about the possibility of fumes escaping from pickling tanks containing hydrochloric acid, Cairns said the containers are sealed and there is "no chance of leakage."

The next line of questioning dealt with operation of the Blast Furnace Division steam generating plant.

When Caplan concludes his questions at 11:30 a.m. today, defense attorneys began to question Cairns. They are John Sullivan and Randall Robertson.

The testimony is being evaluated by Illinois Pollution Control Board Hearing Officer Samuel Lawton.

Achievers

Company's product was a 20-foot flagpole.

Grades, and Liberty were among the 12 JA companies asked to produce and display their products in the exhibition hall of Stouffer's the night of the banquet.

Seventeen Junior Achievement companies met throughout the year at the Granite City JA Business Center.

Sixteen of them manufactured and sold products. A JA full-service bank was sponsored by First Granite City National Bank.

Local corporations which counseled the JA companies were: General Steel Industries, American Steel Foundries, Illinois Power, Granite City Steel, Marshall Division of Miles Laboratories and A. O. Smith.

Business men and women from these firms met once a week with the Junior Achievers to provide officer training and expertise in the areas of production, sales and accounting.

The teenage Achievers handled all aspects of the business cycle from incorporation in October to the liquidation of assets at the end of the spring school semester.

Age Limit Lowered

The Illinois House, by a vote of 95 to 32 along bipartisan lines, approved Tuesday and sent to the Senate a bill authorizing beer drinking for 18-year-olds. In pre-passage discussion, one legislator suggested that beer was an alternative to "pot." Another said the bill would help the tavern owner as well as the teenager.

LATE MODEL ACTION at Tri-City Speedway will highlight tomorrow night's racing program as a special 50-lap feature is planned on the half-mile dirt oval for $1,000 to $2,000 in prize money, the highest ever offered in the division at the local track. A full lineup of super sprint cars also is entered. Shown here in last week's feature, Wib Spalding (444) pulls under Bobby Stanton (51) in the turn for the lead as C. C. Corbin gains third place on the outside.

50-Lap Late Model Stock Feature to Highlight Tri-City Racing Program

Wib Spalding of Granite City, winner of the late model stock feature race at the Tri-City Speedway last Friday night, will be challenged tomorrow night as Tommie Frazier of Jefferson City, Mo. Frazier was last year's Missouri state champion and was Capital City Speedway champion in Jefferson City the last two years. He will bring his 1970 Camaro here for a special 50-lap feature race for $1,000 to $2,000 in prize money. The purse is the highest ever offered here in the stock division.

Another challenger will be Jim Patrick of Jacksonville, who placed second in the point standings at the Jacksonville Speedway last year. Fans may recall the name of Gene Melloway of Columbia, Mo., whose late model crashed into the grandstand wall during a feature race last year, jumped over the wall backwards and through the cyclone fence, halting just one foot short of the bleachers. Tomorrow night will be his first time here since that race.

Other Top Drivers
Other drivers entered include Walt Krummell of Donaldson,

Ill., Roger Drake of Champaign, Art Lynch of Hillsboro, Ill., Joe Ross of Mechanicsburg, Ill., Bobby Minor of St. Louis, Roger Reed of St. Louis and regulars Louie Jansen of Bethalto, Ronnie Lewis of Cottage Hill, C. C. Corbin of East Alton, George Gruenfelder of Madison, Bobby Stanton of East Alton, Howard Ryder of Alton, Clete Blackwell of Hillsberry, Mo., and Bill

Myers of Rosewood Heights. Myers has been having difficulty with a new 350 cubic inch engine in his 1970 Mustang and intends to return this week with the smaller "old trusty" engine he used in his two feature victories earlier this year. "The bigger engine just won't pull its own weight," Myers commented after making the decision.

About 30 late model stocks are expected to compete in the special program.

Sprints Also Entered

The super sprints will also take to the track tomorrow night as the pack will be out to pass Chuck Amati of Greenfield, Tenn., winner of last week's sprint feature.

Events for the super sprints will include qualifying, two heat races, a trophy dash and a 20 lap feature.

Qualifying in both classes will begin at 7 p.m. and racing is scheduled for 8:30.

Close Games Featured In Park League Action

Close games were the order of the day Thursday as Liberty Home defeated Jacobsmeyer's 15-14, in the Classic League Northern Division, and Custom Engraving dropped Burger King by the same score in Park District softball action.

The Jacobsmeyer-Liberty Home game saw-sawed as both teams scored three runs in the first inning. Liberty jumped ahead with three runs in the third to take a one run lead.

Jacobsmeyer's regained the advantage in the top of the fourth, scoring two more runs, and another two in the fifth as Liberty managed one run in the fifth to make it 5-7 for Jacobsmeyer's.

Jacobsmeyer's got another big five runs in the top of the sixth, only to have Liberty come from behind and score eight runs in the bottom of the sixth, and stop Jacobsmeyer's cold in the top of the seventh to win.

It was Burger King's game Thursday until the sixth inning. Going into the sixth Custom Engraving trailed 13-6, but the big bats broke out and four runs crossed the plate in the last of the sixth, with another five in the last of the seventh to overtake and defeat Burger King.

In the 35 & Over League Thursday home runs were the order as Dick Stanton and Babe Champion each hit four-baggers to help Midtown Pharmacy clobber the Elks 20-6.

Without the aid of rounders, but with Ross Hahbrook and Babe Ameling hitting triples, Tony & Jones downed the American Legion 20-8. Ray Hoffman was the winning pitcher.

Trips were slammed by Don May for Local No. 16 and John Palchett for Jacobsmeyer's as Local No. 18 won 7-4. Local No. 16 out-hit Jacobsmeyer's 19 to 17 but was unable to put them together for a bigger score.

Are you the Volkswagen Type 3 type?

Don't let the fact that this car might look like Indy 500 material throw you off the track.

Those racing stripes are a con. That sports car back is a front.

The Volkswagen Type 3 can no more fly down a racetrack than it can fly through the clouds.

What, then, can it do, and who, then is it for?

If you're more concerned with slowing down than speeding up, it has standard front disc brakes.

All 4 wheels are independently suspended so it holds the road better when cornering.

It has the most advanced system of distributing gasoline in the engine: electronic fuel injection.

Shifting on the VW Type 3 is less sticky, 4-speed synchromesh transmission is standard.

And in keeping with Volkswagen standards, it gets around 26 miles to a gallon of gas, uses very little oil, and even less water or antifreeze—none.

But contrary to Volkswagen tradition, it isn't bad looking. In fact, equipped with all the options as you see it in the picture, you can make it look like the menacing, overpowering creature of the road that it isn't.

So if you're looking for a racy little sports car, look somewhere else.

Mercer, Boosters At Home on Sunday

Pierson and St. Mary's Boosters will be at home to Fairfax of East Alton in Southwest Illinois Inter-City Baseball League action at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Following up on the heels of a 9-8 thriller last Sunday over Fairfax, Mercer will be out for its fourth victory in six outings over the Highland team (1-3) at the Wilson Park diamond.

The Boosters again will attempt to crack the victory column as the new league entry has bowed in all five outings this season, including an 11-9 loss to Fairfax last Saturday and a 15-4 defeat by the Machinists the following day. They Mercer will host Highland and meet Fairfax (2-2) on the Third Street diamond.

"We're starting to play together as a team now, and I am looking for our first victory Sunday," St. Mary's Manager Jim Greer said.

"It has taken us awhile to jell, but I really feel we're on our way."

In other league action Maryville (1-5) will play Mollitor Motors, undefeated in five games to hold the Blue Division lead, at Fletcher Field in Collinsville, and Troy's (6-0) Red Division leaders will host Glen Carbon (1-5).

The Machinists drew a bye.

Hoosier Prep Star Signs with Cougars

Thurman "Butch" Ferree, the sixth leading high school basketball scorer in Northern Indiana, has signed a letter of intent to enroll at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, it was announced by the Coach, Jim Dudley.

Ferree, a 6-4" May graduate of Highland, Ind., High School, was the second highest scorer in the powerful Lake Suburban Conference, averaging 22 points per game. In addition, he was Highland's second best rebounder.

Named a "Hoosier Prep Scholar," Ferree was 49th in his class of 492 and finished his high school career with a B-plus average.

Roy E. Lee, coach of the SIU basketball team, was also happy to find out that Ferree has cast his athletic lot with the Cougars. The tall, lean cager also plays first base.

Jake's Wins Keen Yields to Chapple Tournament In Motorcycle Races Crown at Fairmont

Jacobsmeyer's softball team won the first Fairmont City Tournament of Champions by defeating Al's 3-0 Shop of East St. Louis 9-4 this week.

In the double elimination meet the champs defeated River City Rebels 1-4, Herr of Collinsville 8-5, Mercer 12-1 and Al's 6-1.

Stan Serwatka had a 5-0 record on the mound for winners.

John Summers of Jacobsmeyer's took both top individual awards for most home runs and best hitter. Summers slugged four home runs and had 12-for-17 at bat for an average of .706.

Frank Loll of Jacobsmeyer's was runner up in hitting department with 10-for-15 and a .666 average, with three four baggers.

Members of the first place team were Dede Friend, Dan Graville, Dan Hopcus, Charles Neal Keen of St. Louis, point leader in the weekly Tri-City Speedway motorcycle races, finally yielded in a feature race Tuesday night as Charlie Chapple of Flint, Mich., took a quick lead to win the 10-lap event.

Keen started poorly at second to the last position going into the first turn on the quarter-mile dirt oval, but racing consistently well, he worked his way through the pack to finish second in the race.

Chapple also was the winner of the trophy dash and would have been first in his heat but another motorcycle bumped him and he was dropped back too far to catch up. He finished second to Steve Windour of Peoria.

Dick Mann of Richmond, Ill., and Michael Anderson of Los Angeles won their heats.

Keen earned the fast time of the night, followed by Mann and Chapple. Mann's 250 cubic centimeter BSA engine blew midway through the trophy dash and eliminated him from competition.

The point leader also won the first semi-feature race and Billy O'Brien of Waukegan was credited with victory in the second.

The largest crowd to witness a motorcycle race at the local track attended the event. More than 800 persons cheered Chapple on to victory.

The weekly races will continue Tuesday night with qualifying at 7:30 p.m. and racing under the lights at 8 p.m. The gates will open at 6:30 p.m.

GIANT BIRTHDAY CAKE FOR COED. Western Illinois University coed Karen Ghrist of Pittsfield offers the first bite of her giant birthday cake to friend, 18-year-old Prima Noeth of Granite City. The five-pound Hostess Twinkies snack cake was specially baked for the 20-year-old student by ITT Continental Baking Co., Rye, N. Y., at the request of Prima, who wanted to surprise her classmate with a large version of their favorite study-time snack.

Coed Observes Birthday With Largest Twinkles

Western Illinois University coed Karen Ghrist recently celebrated her 20th birthday in style, thanks to an imaginative friend and the understanding management of the nation's largest baking company.

Like most college students, Karen, of Pittsfield, Ill., is a snacker. "When she studies, she normally opens something to eat 'before she opens a book,'" said her friend, 18-year-old Prima Noeth of Granite City.

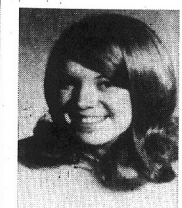

Aware of Karen's fondness for one particular snack cake, cream-filled Hostess Twinkies, Prima wrote to ITT Continental Baking Co. in Rye, N. Y., and asked if it was possible to have a giant version of the cake for Karen's birthday.

"I know it must have sounded ridiculous to the company, and I was sure I'd receive a form letter or some other 'thanks, but . . . ' answer," Prima said. "Instead, I was notified that the cake was on its way."

Baked in Continental's research kitchens, the twin cakes weighed more than five pounds and measured three times the height, width and length of the retail version.

What did Karen Ghrist have to say about her surprise birthday cake? No one knows. Her answer was muffled by mouthfuls of Twinkies.

$1919*
Pinto 2 door
$66* less than VW 113

$2175*
Maverick 2 door
$176* less than Nova 2 door

The little carefree car. Pinto is sized small, like the economy import, but it's bigger on value. And price is only the beginning. Pinto calls for only half as many oil changes as VW. One-sixth the chassis lube. So easy to service that you can do most routine maintenance yourself. And Pinto is bigger on performance. It has a 75-hp engine that has averaged over 25 mpg in simulated city/suburban driving. Sports-car type rack-and-pinion steering. Wider stance and lower silhouette.

The Simple Machine. Maverick's price makes it simpler to own than Nova. But that's not the only reason we call it the Simple Machine. Maverick's simple to drive and park because of its shorter wheelbase and smaller turning circle. Simple to service because it's been designed that way. Maverick offers a 4-door sedan for a low price of $2235* ($145* less than Nova 4 door). Or choose the sporty Grabber model. A choice of an economical V-8 and three thrifty Sixes.

*Ford's suggested retail price for Pinto and Maverick. However, the models shown are equipped with accent group (Pinto $60; Maverick $52) and white sidewall tires ($29). Destination charges, dealer preparation charges (if any), state and local taxes are extra.
Comparison based on manufacturers' suggested retail prices for closest comparable body styles of lowest priced models, comparably equipped.

Caselyville to Host Holiday Tournament

A holiday softball tournament will be held July 2-5 in Caselyville, and local teams wishing to enter may contact Stan Schaefer, tourney manager, Junior High School, answered to the left onto a field and over-taken in a ditch at 3:25 p.m. Wednesday. Gargac was charged with reckless driving. Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, were the driver and two passengers, William H. Clark, 25, of 2705 Denver St., and Douglas Lee Douglas, 17, of Hammond, Ind.

Levee Board Renames Campbell President

In action that had been delayed since early January, trustees of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District reorganized yesterday and re-elected Morris Campbell of East St. Louis as board president. The reorganization action was taken on the suggestion of Lawrence Tolar, East St. Louis, a former president of the levee board. The board customarily reorganizes in its first meeting of the new fiscal year in January, but that action was held up this year when it was reported Tolar would attempt to regain the presidency.

Since there was a 2 to 2 membership split on the four-man board, the stalemate held up any reorganization at that time. The board presently is split into two factions with William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice supporting Campbell, and George Duff, the other East St. Louis trustee, supporting Tolar. When Tolar suggested reorganization in yesterday's meeting, Ebersoldt nominated Campbell for board president. Tolar gave a second to the nomination and Campbell was re-elected by acclamation. The board then reappointed all present levee district officers. In previous years, census data was only available in printed form and detailed analysis of the full data was practically impossible.

Man Drives on School Track, Auto Overtures

Three persons were injured when an auto driven by Terry D. Gargac, 2347 Rock Road, drove onto the track at Prairie Junior High School, swerved to the left onto a field and over-taken in a ditch at 3:25 p.m. Wednesday. Gargac was charged with reckless driving. Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, were the driver and two passengers, William H. Clark, 25, of 2705 Denver St., and Douglas Lee Douglas, 17, of Hammond, Ind.

Regional Data Being Collected, Analyzed

A breakthrough in developing a region-wide data collection analysis center was announced today by the Regional Industrial Development Corporation and St. Louis University. In a press demonstration, it agencies which nine months ago formed an information consortium answered a number of complex questions relating to a wide range of topics, based on data covering Illinois and Missouri collected during the 1970 census.

The consortium has been designated as one of the nation's Summary Tape Processing centers and has received the 1970 census data on magnetic tape. In previous years, census data was only available in printed form and detailed analysis of the full data was practically impossible.

GC Hospital Honored On 50 Years' Service

Twelve health care institutions were honored at Atlantic City, N.J., Tuesday as 25- and 50-year members of the Catholic Hospital Association. Those receiving 50-year certificates included St. Elizabeth Hospital of Granite City.

Presentation of certificates took place at a general session of the CCHA 58th annual convention. Four thousand hospital and health care personnel, health industry representatives and others are attending the convention, which continues through Friday.

"Our Country is bankrupt . . . So says General Lane in his Washington Column, because we keep electing candidates who are subject to pressure groups and follow the pattern of those in office before them—regardless of party affiliation."

The East Side Levee Board is a shining example of horrible waste and has been exposed as such.

We must stop electing their supported candidates.

Our Public selection is LES THIELE. No pressure group affiliation. Pledged to fight for creation of a separate Madison County Levee District. Why let St. Clair County bankrupt Madison County with eyes wide open?

Over 200 at Kickoff for Women's Role in the Granite City Jubilee

Representatives from leading women's organizations, service clubs and social clubs and individual interested citizens were present at the kickoff of the Women's Participation Committee for the Granite City Diamond Jubilee celebration, held at the ice rink in Wilson Park Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Enylee Alford, chairman of women's participation, welcomed an enthusiastic crowd of over 200.

She introduced Mrs. Mary Sedekum of the Chamber of Commerce, who entertained the group with a sparkling "roaring twenties" dance, the Charleston.

Mrs. Lily Chaboudie, chairman of the Celebration Belles, led a style show of the committee, attired in old-fashioned dresses, both formal and informal.

"Gay 80s" music was presented by Mrs. Valerie Stevens, who was introduced as being a member of one of Granite City's first families. Mrs. Stevens is the variety chairman for the Celebration Belles.

Each old-fashioned "belle" was introduced as she appeared on stage. Mrs. Rebecca Slate represented friendship; Mrs. S.

Dorothy Nenninger, public life; Mrs. Donna Hogan, organization; Mrs. Carol Chaboudie, church groups; Mrs. Catherine Michel and Mrs. Fanny Epstein, downtown business girls; Mrs. Dolores Allen, industrial business girls; and Mrs. Bonnie Lazenby, Little Miss Jubilee, all chairman of Celebration Belles committees.

Mrs. Chaboudie explained that anyone can become a member of the Celebration Belles simply by paying a $1 membership fee, entitling her to a membership certificate and her official Jubilee identification button.

Groups can apply for a charter, with minimum 10 members; there is no maximum limit.

The Charter is made in duplicate, one copy for the group and the other to be a permanent record of the Jubilee. The $1 fee entitles each one to a membership certificate and a Jubilee button in charter groups also. Little Miss Jubilee buttons are 50 cents.

Special recognition was given to Laveda N. O'Brien, Jerry Brandy, Sandy Innes, Diane Viole, Loretta Cox and Donna Mueller, all employees of the First Granite City National Bank, who served as stock brokers and tellers for the kickoff.

Mrs. Alford urged everyone to sign up and be a part of the celebration. A week-long schedule of events will be announced soon, she said. Promenades are scheduled for Friday night on July 23, July 30, Aug. 6 and Aug. 13. She asked that everyone dress up in old-fashioned attire and "take part in the fun."

Family participation in the promenades will be emphasized. Mrs. Chaboudie, announced that Charter No. 1 has been assigned to the City Hall Belles, employees of the Granite City city hall.

Organization Charter No. 1 was recorded for the Busy Perky Workers, members of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

Madison Prepares Budget For Adoption June 22

The finance committee of the Madison City Council will meet with Mayor Mike Sasyk at 1 p.m. Saturday to prepare the city's annual budget for the 1971-72 fiscal year, according to plans made at a council meeting Tuesday night.

Department heads were invited to discuss budget requests beginning at 2:30 p.m. Mayor

Sasyk announced that the new budget would be adopted at the next council meeting June 22. Last year's budget totaled $792,137, including general corporate fund appropriations of $377,307. It provided salary increases of $30 per month for regular city employees.

A low bid of $3,634 on the purchase of a gasoline tractor was submitted by Banco Equipment & Supply Co. of Madison. Other bidders were Edwardsville Motor Service, $5,285, and Mitchell Equipment Co., $3,740. The bids were referred to the purchasing committee and street commissioner for study. The equipment is to be used to mow weeds around ball diamonds.

The council approved purchase of summer police uniforms at a total cost of $889. Included were 26 pairs of trousers, 42 shirts, 10 caps and some trouser trim.

Benjamin Bosworth, Gordon Bailey, Andy Economy and Terry Rhoads were authorized to attend the annual Illinois Fire College today through Sunday at the University of Illinois and were allowed expenses of $150 each.

Fourth Ward Alderman John Sikora discussed citizen complaints of youths operating minibikes on sidewalks and asked if the city had an ordinance prohibiting the traffic.

Referred to Police
John Gitchoff and Casper Nghiosian of the legal department said that state statutes prohibit minibikes from operating on any public street or sidewalk, and the matter was referred to the police department.

An annual public library report showed an inventory of 14,841 adult and 2,887 juvenile books and publications with a total circulation of 24,118. Operating expenses were $20,812 and the year-end balance was $7,343.

The mayor and council proclaimed September as National Cystic Fibrosis month at the

The auto of Michael S. Chandri, 2615 Edison Ave., crashed into a boxcar in the middle of a request of Harold J. Gibbons, fund campaign chairman for the Gateway chapter. The council authorized solicitations in the city during the week of Sept. 12, designated as Children's Lung Disease Week.

Retirement Party For Norman Past

A retirement party honoring Norman K. Past, 2300 Missouri Ave., was given this week by employees of Texaco, Inc. The affair was held in the Gold Dust Room of the Western Restaurant in St. Louis.

The local resident, who has been employed by the company 37 years, received a diamond tie clasp and a 28-year "Safe Driving Award."

Prior to the party, Mr. Past was presented a watch commemorating 25 years with the firm. Approximately 80 people attended the farewell event at which both Mr. and Mrs. Past were given luggage as personal gifts.

The couple has three children and five grandchildren. All reside in Granite City.

GPO Women Plan Sale Saturday

The Granite City Republican Women's Club will sponsor a yard sale, starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, at the home of the club president, Mrs. Vernie Wortman, 2460 Washington Ave.

Plans for the sale were discussed Tuesday night when members met in the home of Mrs. Marie Hampton, 2460 Adams St. Heading their ummange sale committee for Saturday's event are Mesdames Mary Nemeth, Edna Richter, Ruth Lucas and Maxine Grissman.

Persons wishing to donate items to the project are asked to bring their contributions to the Wortman residence, the chairman said.

Members agreed to take part in the Jubilee Belfes program, a project connected with the community's 75th anniversary celebration in August, and also made plans to attend a benefit dinner for GOP levee board candidate, John Mangiaracino, set for 7 p.m. Monday at Bill Burns Cafeteria.

Reservations are now being accepted for the Lewis Clark Club dinner, June 25, when Dick Church of the Illinois State Central Republican Committee's office in Springfield will be a panelist along with other GOP leaders. Tickets, priced at $1, may be purchased from members of the GC Republican Women's group prior to June 23.

Mrs. Wortman has been named membership chairman for the 24th Congressional District to help reorganize and recruit members; it was announced.

Eagles Auxiliary Plans Events

Mrs. Nancy Mullen, newly installed president of the Eagles Auxiliary 1126, presided over the regular meeting, Tuesday evening at the Aerie Home.

She and other elected officers, Vera Hornvak, Junior Past Madame President; Brenda Rickert, Madame Vice-President; Deloris Sanders, Madame Chaplain; and Helen Frazier, Madam Conductor, opened the meeting.

Mrs. Ann Konopka was introduced by Mrs. Mullen as her choice for Mother of the Year.

Mrs. Margie Hall read the minutes of the previous meeting and presented correspondence. Leona Delavoy gave the treasurer's report.

There was open discussion about the ladies auxiliary giving one week to help with the Granite City Diamond Jubilee.

Mrs. Mullen presented a report on the installation of officers and extended her thanks to the quilting club for the turkey dinner it prepared.

The auxiliary was asked to donate cakes or pies to the Youth Guidance barbecue on Saturday.

The Fathers Day Dinner was discussed; and it was set for June 16. The quilting club will perform the kitchen work.

Mrs. Mullen presented special awards to Vera Hornvak, Leona Delavoy and Helen Frazier for perfect attendance during the past year.

Deloris Sanders was presented the special prize for the evening and Mrs. Mullen received the white elephant gift.

Before the meeting adjourned Mrs. Hall, the captain of the Quilt Team, gave a report on the convention to be held today through Sunday in Peoria, Ill.

Refreshments were served by Deloris Klesh, Helen Frazier and Stella Miller.

Scholarship Winners Honored by Commission

Miss Rozann Alvarado and David Harington, the first recipients of $400 scholarship grants from the Joseph M. Gonzalez Memorial Scholarship Fund upon graduation at Granite City High School, were guests at a meeting of the Mexican Honorary Commission held this week at the Jaycee Hall on Poplar Street.

The young people received the awards from the new fund, established by the Mexican Honorary Commission in memory of Mr. Gonzalez, a Granite City High School counselor, who died June 24, 1970, of injuries suffered in an auto crash a few days earlier.

Also as a memorial to Mr. Gonzalez, 37, the 1970-71 Year Book at Granite City High School was dedicated in his name, it was learned.

A copy of the bound volume was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. "Pete" Metcalf and presented to the meeting by Mr. Cenobio Gonzalez, the father of the late Joseph Gonzalez, to be given to the latter's young son, Steven.

In addition to the regular business session, conducted by Steve Ortiz, commission president, a farewell party was hosted in honor of Joe Magyar, a member of the Merchant Marine, who is to leave the United States. The honored guest presented the organization with a record album of Spanish songs.

Members agreed to participate in the annual Jaycee homecoming celebration June 17-20. Frank Aiello was accepted as a new member.

Sales Increase By A. O. Smith In 1st 6 Months

A. O. Smith Corp. will earn between $298 and $3.01 per share in the first half of 1971, compared to $2.78 per share last year, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, said Monday in Pittsburgh.

Sales in the first half, Smith said, will be up $10 million over last year to about $29 million.

For the second quarter, earnings will be between $1.62 and $1.67 per share, compared to $1.51 last year.

While generally optimistic about 1971, Smith told analysts he had two areas of concern. The first, he said, is a continuing improvement in the economy, which he feels more confident about now than he did earlier in the year.

The second area is the climate for labor-management relations throughout the country.

Contracts Expiring

"In our own case," he said, "we have several important settlements behind us. However, we still face the negotiation of our Milwaukee Works labor contracts which expire on July 31."

The Milwaukee plant is the largest in the company, with 6,500 employees. There is an auto frame plant in Granite City.

He said a steel strike of less than 60 days would not materially affect results.

Discussing the first half of 1971, Smith said the company's automotive division turned in a strong performance with both sales and profits up substantially over last year.

Sales of the company's water heater products also are up, he said.

Two subsidiaries, Armor Elevator Co., Inc., and A. O. Smith Harvestore Products, Inc., are showing healthy increases in sales and profits over last year, Smith reported.

Excessive inventory in the air-conditioning industry is causing a pause in the growth of the company's Electric Motor division, he told analysts, adding that the long-term outlook for this business is still bright. He also said conditions are returning to normal in the Meter Systems division, which earlier this year was hit with a two week strike and a slowdown in incoming orders.

The Clark Control division has suffered from a lack of volume and is expected to operate at a loss during the year, he said. Losses at A. O. Smith Corp. of Texas, a jointly-owned affiliate, are being substantially reduced, although no profit is expected this year.

A. O. Smith, with its subsidiaries, is a widely diversified manufacturer of auto and truck frames, electric motors, electrical controls, meter systems, agricultural feed storage and handling systems, water heating equipment, elevators and other products.

$8,900-$15,000 GC Teacher Pay In 72-73 Year

For the nine-month school term, a teacher working agreement ratified Monday night by the Granite City board of education designates an $8,400-$14,600 salary range in 1972-73 and an $8,900-$15,000 range for 1973-74. Teachers' Local 743 approved the pact last week.

Bartylak Seeks Law License Restoration

Joseph R. Bartylak, former Madison County state's attorney, appeared at a closed hearing before a committee of the Illinois Bar Assn. Wednesday in Springfield on a petition to have his law license restored.

Bartylak voluntarily surrendered his license after he was indicted by a 1967 on 16 charges of theft and one charge of official misconduct.

The theft charges were dropped and he pleaded guilty to the misconduct charge. He was placed on probation for five years.

Bartylak and his attorney, Dick H. Mudge of Edwardsville, presented his case to a two-member hearing division of the bar association's grievance committee.

The division will prepare a transcript and recommendations to the state bar, which in turn will present recommendations to the State Supreme Court for a decision, expected after the court's summer recess. Bartylak filed his petition last Jan. 11.

Levee Board Refuses to Pay Costs of Elections

The East Side Levee and Sanitary District will refuse to pay election costs incurred in the May 4 special primary election conducted by order of Governor Richard B. Ogilvie to replace incumbent members of the levee district board of trustees.

Decision not to pay the costs was reached by the levee board in regular meeting yesterday on grounds that the present trustees still remain in office under rulings by the Appellate and Supreme Courts and that there is no legal basis for conducting an election.

At the same time, board members revealed that Dan Morris, treasurer of the county, has withheld $11,000 in levee district tax collections to guarantee payment of the costs in that county. The primary was conducted in Madison and St. Clair counties to nominate reversible and Democratic candidates for five levee board posts.

Seek Return of Funds

The board authorized Chief Clerk Edalia Hotz of the St. Clair county treasurer to release the withheld funds to the levee district.

No Food Exemption on Sales Tax; Public Worker Strikes

(Springfield Scene)

A final death knell was rung last week for the proposals to exempt food and medicine from the state retailers' occupation and use taxes when a motion to discharge the House Revenue Committee of H. 79 to H. 82 failed on the floor.

Democratic leaders rallied 86 votes to discharge the committee but 89 were necessary to bring the series to the floor for debate and vote.

House Speaker Robert Blair, Crete Republican, said neither Republicans nor Democrats would attempt to bring the proposal to the floor again this year.

In another move, which he termed extraordinary, Blair allowed a series of duplicate appropriations bills to be introduced in the House "in an effort to prevent a rush of Senate appropriation bills from being dumped into the House during the final weeks of the session."

House labor forces last week amended Public Employees Bargaining Act (H. 1) to include all junior college and senior college academic personnel. Eight other amendments proposing no-strike provisions and relief for those to join a union were killed.

The House version now covers virtually all employees of governmental units with no restrictions on strikes or other economic weapons.

The Senate version of the Public Employees Bargaining Act (S. 112) is scheduled for hearing this week. In other action, unfair employment practices (H. 286) were passed by the House.

They include a series of detailed amendments to the Employment Act including requirements that charges must be served on respondents within 30 days, proceedings of conciliation conferences cannot be disclosed without both parties agreeing, and charges must be filed within 180 days of an alleged unfair practice.

Wage assignment restrictions that would have required that an employer cannot fire an employee for one such order (H. 253) were killed by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

In a related matter, bills calling for increases in the amount of wages exempt from wage deductions or wage assignments from $65 to $80 for a head of a family and from $50 to $65 for a single person (H. 2038 & H. 2039) passed the House.

Several bills were introduced in the Senate, including S. 1222 which requires employers to comply with the health and safety standards promulgated by the Industrial Commission in accordance with the Federal Occupational Department of Labor power to enforce such rules and make inspections.

Two bills were introduced to eliminate General Assembly tuition scholarships at state colleges and universities (S. 1225) and eliminate teacher education and other such tuition waiver scholarships (S. 1227).

The Senate passed by a 40-9 vote a $81 million deficiency appropriation for the Department of Public Aid so it can finish out fiscal year 1971.

Detonators containing more than 8.75 phosphates after Jan. 1, 1972, and those containing any phosphates after Jan. 1, 1973, would be prohibited in Illinois under H. 526, passed by the House.

Cadet Windisch Honored At Missouri Military

Cadet Robert Windisch of Sukin, Olinawa, was among the undergraduates who shared in honors during awards ceremonies and commencement at Missouri Military Academy, Mexico, Mo., this spring.

Son of Mrs. Mary A. Windisch, and grandson of Mrs. Helen DeRantz, 2145 Grand Ave., he was awarded academic distinctions in U. S. history and biology.

Southern Link with I-255 Is Endorsed

Endorsement was given at the June Board meeting of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council to an application submitted by the State of Illinois Division of Highways to acquire rights-of-way and construct new alignment Federal-Aid Primary Route 410.

Total estimated construction cost of the proposed project is $1,856,000. This figure does not include an estimated $5,685,000 for right-of-way. The improvement will extend from the existing interchange with Route 55-70 southerly to its connection with Route 255. It will follow the route alignment a distance of four miles, and then one new alignment southerly to an intersection with Illinois Route Three south of the Monroe-Randolph Counties line. Total length of the improvement will be 27 miles.

The proposed new facility will be constructed to standards similar to Interstate standards, with full control of access provided. It will be financed by the federal aid primary formula of 90% state highway funds and 10% federal highway funds.

Vandals Damage Truck Owned by Madison Firm

A truck owned by Lee & Andy's Towing Service, 1350 Madison Ave., was damaged by vandals at 10:25 p.m. Monday.

Witnesses said that a car, containing several men, was northbound in the 1300 block of Grand Avenue in Madison when the men threw two bricks out of the window. One broke the left front window of the truck and the other struck a tire on the station wagon of Lou Kallala, 926 Reynolds St., Madison.

The station wagon was not damaged. The auto then sped away, police were told. The towing and repair service has been picketed by striking members of the International Association of Machinists Local 8, since September, 1970.

Sternberg Co. Dealer For 'Duramar 200'

A coating described as "the most advanced in the industry" is now standard on all metal buildings erected by G. H. Sternberg & Co. 1069 Delmar Ave. local dealer for Armo Steel Corp.

The new coating, called "Duramar 200," resists chemicals, solvents and harsh rays of the sun. Based on field tests, the coating's properties and performance indicate a minimum of 20 years life when applied to the building exterior wall panel system. Gene Sternberg, owner of G. H. Sternberg & Co., explained that the coating is applied to the wall panels during manufacture. The 20-year guarantee is the most liberal in the metal building industry.

Auto Turns, Struck

While making a left turn, an auto driven by Donna L. Beavers, National City, was struck in the right rear side by a car driven by Allan D. Williams, 1817 Fifth St., Madison, at 5:40 p.m. Monday at Johnson and Numeok Roads.

Drivers' Records Soon to Be Available to Courts

Progress is being made toward making drivers' records available to judges in traffic court, Secretary of State John W. Lewis has announced at Springfield.

Addressing the sixth annual Illinois Traffic Court Conference, Secretary Lewis said an aim of the program presently being developed is to have devices resembling television sets equipped with keyboards placed in judges' offices.

These devices are known as catode ray terminals, and would be connected directly to the computer containing driver records in the Secretary of State's office, making driver records available in a matter of seconds.

"We realize the benefits which could be obtained if a driver's prior record could be made known to the court, and we will do what we can to make such information available to you," Lewis said.

Study Pilot Plan
The feasibility of a pilot installation in the Chicago Municipal Court is now being studied, and it is hoped to start the project in about six months. "This means that a year from now we will have had enough experience, if all goes well, to enable us to offer the service to other courts," Secretary Lewis said.

He urged judges contemplating using a direct wire system to make a careful determination of their information requirements.

Plan Computer Program
"This is quite important, and if you can come to a general agreement on your basic needs, it will be possible for us to develop a computer program which will best serve them," Lewis said.

Through a similar system, driver license and motor vehicle registration information will soon be available to more than 200 law enforcement agencies in the state.

The State Police communication network known as LEADS, Law Enforcement Agencies Data System, now serves those agencies in other law enforcement areas through teletype terminals in the local offices, and within three or four months, the State Police system will be connected with the data processing files of the Secretary of State's office, Lewis said.

Faith Called Essential Foundation to Activism

"The church in recent years has tried to erect a superstructure of social activism on a diminishing foundation of faith," Bishop Earl G. Hunt Jr. of the United Methodist Church, N. C. Area, told the 1971 Southern Illinois Conference, which ended this week in Olney.

"The result has been peril and folly," he added, saying that "the most hidden scandal of Christian religion today is that no one reads the Bible anymore."

Speaking on the "word" of the Bible, Bishop Hunt held out the Scripture as the residual of faith for all who long for significance and identity—"Empty characterizes man today; nobody knows who he is."

The visiting church leader contended that Christ is a citizen of two worlds, spiritual and temporal, wherein "the whole of human history is tied to the ethic of Christianity, which has been involved with every great emancipation movement in history."

"The citizen has to get involved in the problems of the world," he said, adding, "but some of us don't want to get involved, and this is what churchmanship is all about."

Parochialism or provincialism, declared the speaker, "is the worst thing that could happen to a local church, and I'm concerned that we have lost our horizons."

"Unless the church is willing to move out into the world for which Christ died, then the church is not of the sovereignty of God."

United Methodist Southern Illinois Conference churches in calendar 1970 spent in aggregate $8,570,552, a drop of $215,854 from 1969, the Rev. Downan McKinn, Mount Vernon, treasurer, reported at the annual session.

Pastors in aggregate received last year $1,741,573, a gain of $61,715 in the year.

Total spent for buildings and improvements was $650,472, a 40% decline from 1969, indicating a leveling off in major edifice construction.

"One encouraging aspect of the fiscal statement this year," said the treasurer, "is the gain in total giving to others even as churches generally received less money than they did the year before."

"Apparently," he added, "people still believe in the church and its many ministries."

The lowest note of the annual fiscal summary was the drop in total giving to world service and conference benevolences—from 89% to 87% of apportionment, the lowest in "many years," according to Rev. McKinn. The fund supports health and welfare institutions, ministerial education, property upkeep, conference administration, hospitalization insurance and the like.

Norman E. Fechtig, 34, RFD 1, Carmi, and Everest Thompson, 50, of Sesser, were elected as delegates to the 1972 United Methodist General Conference in Atlanta, Ga.

Election of the two laymen came on the first ballot. They will be joined by two additional laymen to make up the four-member lay delegation to the Atlanta convocation in the spring.

Balloting will continue until the delegation is completed. General conferences are held every four years.

The enigma of God's love and man's sufferings remains today the puzzle it was to St. Paul and Job, Bishop Lance Webb reminded the more than 500 lay and ministerial delegates to the Southern Illinois conference.

"No one has the answers," he said in a Holy Communion address during the five-day meeting. "But that does not mean that we, with Job, are justified in putting God in the wrong."

"This is our sin," declared the bishop in the traditional memorial service of the conference, "that, as a young college student told me, 'Man is really better than God. For how could God, who is good and merciful, allow his Son go to the cross, or put Job through such terrible tests?'"

The church spokesman urged the delegates, failing to unravel the "unsearchable judgments or untraceable ways of God," still to remember that "God is the God of the depths as well as the heights—he is the God who rode into Jerusalem to be mocked and spit upon."

Turning to contemporary music, Bishop Webb said: "Whatever you think of the modern folk opera 'Jesus Christ Superstar' it is clear that the writers have caught the real humanity of Jesus, although there is no hint of the resurrection or anything beyond."

The humanity of Christ is of "sweet and sacrifice and work of pretension," Bishop Webb went on, marking Christ's final agony as the "depths of God's wisdom, the wealth and the love of God."

The Sacrament of Holy Communion, said Bishop Webb, combines the "humanity of Jesus and the divine greatness of the love of God. Christ became obedient and humbled himself in death."

To the same way, he added, "Our bread, our food, physical and spiritual, is at the price of sweat and sacrifice and work of others."

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Jennings returned to Granite City this week from a visit in Akron, Ohio, with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Schmits.

With the Schmits, the local couple attended commencement exercises Friday at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J., where Schmits was awarded his doctoral degree in School Psychology.

Schmits received a bachelor's degree from Evansville University and a master's degree in Counseling Psychology from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale campus.

He was acting chief psychologist at a clinic in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School District, North Carolina, before completing his doctorate at Rutgers.

During his doctoral studies, Schmits served as school psychologist for the Jamesburg State Home for Boys and also taught at Rutgers University. He and his wife, the former Jo Ann Jennings of Granite City, are now employed at the University of Akron. Mrs. Schmits earned her Ph.D. from St. Louis University.

The two couples also toured the Finger Lakes region of New York State and visited Niagara Falls, Canada, prior to attending the Rutgers commencement.

St. Bartholomew Summer Services

Revised hours for worship services during the summer months at St. Bartholomew Episcopal Church, 22nd Street and Grand Avenue, were announced today by the Reverend Wilbur L. Lear, rector. The Rev. Lear said that effective Sunday the Family Eucharist, the church's principal service consisting of a simple Low Mass and sermon, will be held at 10 a.m. each Sunday. The service previously started at 9:15 a.m. An evening Mass will continue to be conducted at 6 p.m. each Sunday. The Rev. Lear noted, explaining that attendance at the Saturday service fulfills a Sunday obligation. There will be no change in the hours of daily Masses throughout the summer months, the Rev. Lear said. Confessions will be heard at 4 p.m. Saturday or at other hours by appointment. Sunday worship services at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Glen Carbon will be held at 8:30 a.m. each week until further notice, the minister also announced.

St. John Evening Guild Plans Membership Drive

Plans to conduct a membership campaign during the summer months were formulated at parties at the Hiltz Monday evening by members of the Evening Guild of St. John United Church of Christ who met in the Fellowship Hall for an indoor picnic supper. Mrs. Karmyn Wagner, the retiring president, expressed appreciation to guild officers for their assistance in various activities the past year. She announced a meeting at 1:30 p.m. June 16 to finalize plans to assist at parties at the Hiltz Home. Mrs. Wagner also reported the Illinois Southern Conference met in the Fellowship Hall for place Sept. 12-13 and meditation days are set for Oct. 16-17 and Oct. 18-19. During the summer recess, Evening Guild members will attempt to recruit new members and interest women who formerly belonged to the organization in reactivating their membership. Mrs. Hanks Chairman of Christian Science Board Needs of the whole human family can be met through individual spiritual recognition of divine power, Mrs. Lenore D. Hanks, new chairman of The Christian Science Board of Directors, said at the denomination's annual meeting in Boston on Monday.

It is not too late, Mrs. Hanks told the gathering, for the individual to learn about the spiritual resources which enable mankind to repair the ecology, reverse the population explosion and arrest drug abuse, war, crime, injustice, apathy and greed.

"Peoples everywhere," she said, "need to get the feel of, irresistible divine power, of divine activity going on all over the world. We must never allow human action to overshadow the recognition of divine action."

The results of recognizing the power and presence of God are shared at Wednesday evening testimony meetings held in 138 branches of the denominations in Illinois, according to Parker W. Thomas, Chicago, of the Christian Science Committee on Publications for Illinois.

"This is a time of challenging religion to be meaningful, practical—of challenging prayer to be effective," Thomas said in commenting on the call of the Boston meeting for increased spiritual activity.

"Christ Jesus left no doubt that spiritual activity results in dynamic effects in human affairs. It's an interesting challenge—really a thrilling one—to attempt consistently to be responsive to God's direction in our daily activities and communications."

Those attending the meeting heard a report on the progress of the massive building development in the Christian Science Center in Boston, read by Carl B. Rechner, development consultant.

Of special interest was information about a new training program initiated and funded by The Mother Church "to employ minority unskilled workers leading to union apprenticeship." The program, referred to as unique, has been in force for a year and a half and is considered a model for the Boston area.

New construction is now more than half completed; a 500-car underground garage is in use; the Sunday School Building is in its final stages; the Colonnade Building should be occupied late this year; and the new Administration Building is scheduled for occupancy late next year.

Construction adjacent to the Center is being done by private developers with their own funds on land made available by the denomination. This perimeter construction includes the largest apartment building in New England and an 11-story motor hotel.

The Mother Church is encouraging private developers to consider the needs of the local community and to maintain the best employment practices, the report stated.

The new chairman of the denomination's board of directors is a native of Portland, Ore., and a graduate of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Hanks, who now lives in Boston, is a Christian Science teacher and practitioner. Prior to becoming a director in 1968, she traveled widely as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship with special interest in lectures at colleges and universities.

Lovejoy Library Gifts Total 15,000 in 1970

A report prepared by the executive secretary of the Southern Illinois University Friends of Lovejoy Library, Sheila Stinson, shows gifts to the library in 1970 totalled more than 15,000 books, periodicals and other items valued at more than $140,000.

"This does not include untitled small gifts from donors who did not request an appraisal," Mrs. Stinson said, "nor does it include sheet music by the piece. Largest gift in value was the Albert Mohr collection from Germany of music manuscripts, autographs and photographs of 20th century European composers and set designs for opera productions."

According to Mrs. Stinson, individual items ranged from additions to the Slavic and East European collection in several Slavic languages—now totalling 9,200 books and other items—to sheet music of the early 1900s, Frederic Remington prints, local history materials and old letters from area families, an author's manuscript and galley proofs, a Lincoln scrapbook, scarce periodicals and one oil painting.

The Friends office sent 167 letters of acknowledgment to donors during 1970. "This figure represents record keeping and acknowledgement of an average of one-and-one-half gifts per day for every day the Friends office was staffed on its half-time basis," Mrs. Stinson said.

Seven SIU Grads Hold Top Jr. College Posts

Southern Illinois University at Carbondale is helping provide the top leadership for the state's junior college system—five presidents, one acting president and a president-elect are SIU products.

Joe R. Bryant, assistant to the chancellor of SIU's Carbondale campus, who has visited all of the public and private junior colleges and this spring has found SIU graduates installed in the executive offices of almost one-fifth of the 37 state-supported institutions.

"This is a pretty good record for us, considering that our doctoral graduates receive the Ph.D. rather than the Doctor of Education degree," Bryant said.

McKendree Outlines Custom-Made Majors

Dean Owen has announced that under the new "4-1" program next fall a student of McKendree College will be able to plan his major. The program will be based on the educational needs of the individual student. In other words a student may customize a major for himself.

Here is how it will work: A student who believes his goals can be more adequately achieved through an individually-designed major. Instead of the traditional major, will send a request to his academic adviser. The Dean of the College will then be notified of the student's intention to plan an individually-designed major.

The student will consult with the academic adviser and the Dean of the College. Then he will select a professor who may assist in planning his individually-designed major.

The Dean of the College shall appoint a committee composed of the professor selected by the student, the Dean of the College, and one other professor. This committee can approve a major which appears to best aid the student. Any subsequent changes in the original proposal for the individually-designed major must be approved by the committee.

The student's major will be drawn up in a proposal which contains: The vocational and educational goals of the student. The title of the individually-designed major.

The courses to be included in the individually-designed major. The courses to be included in the general education degree requirements. These courses would have to be selected under conditions listed in the current College Catalog.

The courses needed in addition to other courses above to meet vocational and educational objectives of the student.

Any other such items as the committee may require. This is how the individually-designed major is formed. The student must meet all other requirements as outlined in the college catalog.

A retirement request by Mary Hopkins, principal of Marshall School, was accepted, effective last Friday. She was employed by the district 42 years.

Resignations accepted due to program is planned for next year, requiring only one coach. He will be chosen from the present high school staff, if possible.

The position of assistant track coach was declared open by the drafting of Bunting and an appointment will be made during the summer, officials said.

At Prather, two resignations and a request for a transfer were approved as Mr. Hemphill resigned from ninth grade basketball duties and assistant track coach duties, and Mr. Kennerly resigned his position as wrestling coach.

Mr. Buehler transferred from head coach to assistant baseball coach leaving that position open, and Mr. Gunderson was appointed to the baseball coaching staff with Buehler.

All other coaches in the district will retain their present coaching assignments by board approval.

Traffic Fatalities up 58% Over Same Period of 1970

Traffic deaths in the Quad-City area during the first five months of this year have jumped 58% over the number of such fatalities occurring during the same five-month period last year, while the number of traffic mishaps and injury cases for the same period has declined substantially, statistics compiled by the Press-Record showed today.

This year's list of fatalities spiraled to a total of 19 during May when three more persons died as the result of traffic mishaps. For the same five-month period of 1970 there were 12 traffic deaths.

Traffic records maintained for the month of May showed a total of 190 traffic mishaps occurring in or near the Quad-City area, with 90 persons injured in those accidents in addition to the three persons who died as a result of their injuries. These figures compare with a total of 216 accidents and 130 persons injured during May 1970. Three persons also died in traffic crashes in May 1970.

Sets 10-Year Record

The total of 19 traffic deaths during the five months of this year is the largest for a similar period of any single year since 1960, statistics show.

The number of accidents and injury cases for the five-month period so far this year is, at the same time, the lowest in many years. During the five-month period of January through May last year, a total of 1087 accidents was reported compared to this year's 842, and 518 injuries were recorded, compared with this year's 379.

On this basis, the number of accidents during the five-month period this year is down 23.5% from last year's figure, and the number of injuries resulting from traffic accidents is a decline of 26.8% below those of the five-month period of 1970.

The major increases in traffic deaths this year were recorded in January, March and April—as compared to last year's statistics. Six persons died in traffic mishaps in January this year, compared to one in January 1970. Seven were killed in March this year compared with three in March last year.

April Deaths Rise

Two other traffic deaths occurred in April this year compared to none in the same month a year ago.

The monthly record of accident statistics so far this year, with the number of accidents, injuries and fatalities, in that order, is as follows:

January, 107-74-6; February, 150-56-1; March, 169-78-7; April, 157-84-2; May, 190-90-3.

The statistics for the same period of 1970, in the same order, were:

January, 263-109-1; February, 221-94-5; March, 197-74-3; April, 208-111-0; May, 216-130-3.

Kodaly Music Concepts SIU-SW Workshop Topic

A workshop based on the Zoltan Kodaly concepts of music education will be held at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Monday through Saturday in Room 1402 of the Peck Building.

Kodaly believed that a child should learn music daily, as he learns reading or mathematics, and that every child can and should learn music as early as possible (3 to 7 years of age) so that he can read music as easily as he reads his mother tongue.

Klara Kokas, a graduate of the Liszt Academy and Orvos University of Budapest, Hungary, will lecture June 16-17 on the philosophies of Kodaly and the research she has designed for evaluation of the music program in Hungary and America. She also will lecture on the impact of the Kodaly concepts on the teaching of the perceptually and emotionally handicapped child.

A musician and a philosopher, Miss Kokas studied folk music with Kodaly at the Hungarian Academy of Music. In 1955 he assigned her the task of establishing an elementary school with special singing and music curriculum at Szombathely. This type of school was first started, according to Kodaly's instructions, by Maria Nemesszeghy in 1950.

A member of the faculty at Orvos University, Miss Kokas is director of research at the Kodaly Musical Training Institute in Wellesley, Mass.

Prof. Dorothy Tullos of SIU's Fine Arts Division at Southern is coordinator of the conference and will be clinician for the sessions Monday, Tuesday and June 18 and 19. In 1968 Prof. Tullos spent her sabbatical leave in Europe studying the Kodaly method.

She will present curriculum and methodology of the Kodaly concepts as it influences the music specialist, the classroom teacher and the private applied music teacher today.

The workshop can be taken for credit. Those attending on a credit basis must be officially admitted to the University before registering. Application for admission can be obtained by writing the Admissions Office, SIU-SW, 6205.

Those wishing to participate on a conference basis can register at the first meeting. The conference fee is $15. Conference hours are 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4:45 p.m. Question and answer periods will be held between 6 and 7 p.m.

Immunization Against Dental Decay Sought

Professor Arthur N. Bahn of the SIU-SW School of Dental Medicine presented a paper, "Immunization Against Dental Caries," at a meeting of the American Society for Preventive Dentistry Wednesday in Chicago.

According to his research, immunization against dental decay may be feasible but future research is necessary to clarify this expectation.

Professor Bahn is chairman of the Department of Microbiology of the School of Dental Medicine. He previously was on the microbiology department faculty at the Medical and Dental School, Northwestern University. He is a consultant to the American Dental Association Council on Research.

RICHARD WENNER, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wenner, 2324 St. Bernard Ave., who completed college requirements in three years and will graduate Saturday from Michigan State University as a psychology major. The 1968 Granite City High School graduate will work toward an advanced degree.

DePauw U. Graduate
Miss Colleen Robertson, daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Randall Robertson, 3408 Princeton Drive, graduated last week from DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind., with a bachelor degree in speech.

McKendree Graduates
Jack L. Farrow and Laura A. Jensen of Granite City have graduated from McKendree College, Lebanon. Farrow majored in speech and Miss Jensen in sociology.

McKendree Offers Quality Education at Minimum Cost

By JOEL R. POWER
Director of Public Information
McKendree College, Lebanon

One normal question which must be asked by parents and by college-bound students themselves is why go to a given college? Why should you choose college X over university Y?

Examining the variety of colleges and universities today is confusing. There are so many on the market. They come in all sizes, are in all parts of the country and have every specialty.

The only ready-made answer we can give about colleges is that education is quite a business these days. But what is it all about?

Why McKendree? What is the peculiar qualities which call a student to McKendree College?

The obvious facts of McKendree College are rather quickly. McKendree is a small college of slightly less than 800 students. It is nestled in a picturesque village 25 miles east of St. Louis. The town, Lebanon, Ill., was founded in 1814 and was visited by Charles Dickens himself.

McKendree College is coeducational. In fact, McKendree has been coed since its inception 143 years ago. Most of its students come from the St. Louis metropolitan area and Southern Illinois. However, young adults come from as far away as New York and New Jersey, from Ethiopia and the Far East.

McKendree is fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Universities and other agencies. It is a four-year liberal arts college.

McKendree College offers both the Bachelor of Arts and Science degrees.

Major fields of study at the college are English, education, music, art, speech, history, philosophy, political science, sociology, psychology, business, physics, biology, chemistry, mathematics, physical education and pre-professional training in several areas.

One of the great strengths of McKendree is that its students learn in tutorial classes. The professor-student ratio is 13:1. This gives that extra "plus" necessary for success in any field.

Of the faculty of slightly less than fifty, 89% of McKendree's professors have earned doctor's degrees.

McKendree students do not have the distractions of a large city. They are taught at a school that is dedicated to the Judeo-Christian heritage. In brief, they are individuals who are individually taught.

At McKendree, they are introduced to the best of western culture, concentrating primarily on the Western tradition. McKendree students receive the proper basis for graduate study or to continue on to professional schools. They receive the education to graduate immediately upon graduation.

McKendree College's second charter states its purpose simply: "To promote the general interest of education, and to qualify young men and women to engage in the several employments and professions of society and to discharge honorably and usefully the various duties of life."

Founded in 1828
A group of pioneers founded McKendree in 1828. It is the oldest college or university in Illinois.

In addition, it is the oldest college in the U.S. continuously affiliated with the Methodist Church, 43 traditions across the idea known as McKendree College.

Bothwell Chapel, built in 1838 and recently renovated, is still the focal point of the eye and campus.

New buildings have doubled the campus in the last five years. These include a handsome library, a modern science hall, fine men's and women's dormitories, a "real current" student center and a pleasant dining hall.

All of McKendree's previous

efforts last the top last year when it won full accreditation from the North Central Association of Colleges and Universities.

U. S. Senator Charles H. Percy recently called McKendree "... one of the most improved colleges in the United States."

This is all interesting, but what makes McKendree different from rest? Why is it above the average?

What does it cost to go to McKendree? Let's examine McKendree more closely, beginning with college expenses.

Tuition Comparison
These days there is much talk about how high the private education is and how low public education will naturally be higher. In the past, this was an implied view of its superior worth to any other. However, it will be higher simply because fewer people share its cost.

In public schools, the student goes into a silent partnership with anonymous taxpayers. At a private institution, there are anonymous donors but the student carries a larger share of the dollar load. It places a natural premium on the education received.

Myth and mystery are all mixed together quite freely in college costs today. We as the middlemen, the ones who must pay the bill, need to know what really are the total costs of educating a person today. Just how much more do private colleges really cost?

The costs of colleges and universities of this area are:
McKendree College, $1555 a year tuition, $175 fees, $1240 a year room and board.
McMurry College, $2350, none and $1150.

Greenview College, $1500, books and supplies $150 included in tuition, and $1000 a year.
SIU-SW, $165 a quarter, $3 a quarter and apartments $105 a quarter.

SIU-Carbondale $165 a quarter, none and $1200 a year.
University of Illinois, $200 a semester, $28 and $501 to $551 a semester.

Washington University, $2450 a year, books and supplies $150 included in tuition, and $1000 a year.
University of Missouri-St. Louis, $250 a semester, $18.50 a year, and no housing.

St. Louis University, $850 a semester and $1000 a year.
The institutions are representative of a large part of the nation.

Housing or Commuting
McKendree has facilities for both the "live on campus" and the "commuting" student.
What does it cost to go to McKendree? Tuition is $1550 and fees are $175 for the two school semesters. Room and board costs $1240 per year. Studying the list apparently McKendree is very competitive with the private institutions but $1000 or more than any of the public schools.

Notice that room and board is generally the same wherever you go. Many of the public schools cater only to the commuter student.
Quality costs money. This is obvious. All 11 of the private schools are more expensive than public.

Let's look under this $1000 blanket and see what the real costs are—the average difference between public and private schools.

Most students at McKendree receive some kind of support. In fact, 55% of all their school costs are assumed by other sources. An important one is Illinois grants.

Upon qualification, a young man or woman can attend in a private or public school in the state.

At McKendree, such a grant would apply $1200 (the full amount available) toward tuition.

Other scholarships, work-study plans and loans are available. The fact of the matter is that a young person today who desires a college education can get a fine one at McKendree for less money than the ledger at first reveals.

Student Work Program

Taking $1200 from McKendree's leaves a $600 balance of fees and tuition. Over 100 students work at McKendree, five to 15 hours a week at a rate of $1.65 per hour.

This not only aids their college finances but gives them real job exposure and places even more value on an education which they literally earn. The expenses as quoted for McKendree contain most of the hidden charges of attending college. A fact too often overlooked is that when students are at college they go on living. That is, they go to shows, they buy soda, candy bars, gasoline, magazines, clothes, the latest fads. They have dates.

Not that these are not real expenses at McKendree, but the number of expenses always rises at a large state university or at a school in a large city. These items are not on their Official Lists, but they are sizeable nonetheless.

All in all, if a student is willing to work a few hours a week, has a C-plus average which will earn a scholarship and takes out a loan which can be repaid over liberal amounts of time with liberal interest to the federal government, he will find that the cost of education at McKendree is quite competitive with the public institutions dollar-wise.

What makes McKendree different than all the rest? Obviously, it can't be all things to all people. It makes no pretense to be.

A journalism major cannot be pursued at McKendree. Neither can geological engineering, nor computer sciences.

It is a college, not a megaversity. It has its limitations. It does offer solid liberal arts, business, pre-professional training and teacher preparation.

Average Person Seeking McKendree seeks the average American man and woman for students. We don't want SDS, we don't want Klan, the Mafia or the Communist party.

McKendree is contemporary in that we believe education should be open to all who actively seek it.

Although it is a Methodist-related school, most of our students indicate a preference for some other faith—29% Roman Catholic, for instance.

McKendree is cosmopolitan and international. It has a sizeable representation of black students. So, in McKendree community, a sampling of modern America and the modern world is given.

Yet, at the same time, the heritage of McKendree's 143 years and that of the 350 plus years of the American dream is preserved.

Students can finish their remaining two years after junior college here. They can receive their liberal arts training here and then transfer to a school with a more highly technical course. There are many, many options. The best is four years at McKendree and degrees in the "megaversity" or urban center.

Those reared in either a city or suburb desiring a fresh change in their college environment.

Those from small towns or farms who wish to study at college and not be lost in a "megaversity" or urban center.

Best of Two Worlds
3. Those who want the best of two worlds — "the commuter" — desiring the quiet atmosphere of a small college town and the attractions of St. Louis.

4. Those who simply want to come from afar, reside and study.

5. Those who are looking for a second chance at college education.

McKendree has one big intangible plus. It accepts up to 20% of its enrollment on probation. With a special department, McKendree evaluates those students who have failed at another institution or for any reason.

They test them and then give them a second shot at a college degree. Our statistics show that two out of every three admitted under this program make the grade. This is surprising because they have been rejected by other colleges and universities as failures.

Statistically, they are washouts, and yet McKendree essentially redeems them. They receive another chance to earn a B.A. or B.S.

How? Well, in many ways it is mysterious, but largely it is because of motivation. The student must have the basic intelligence; tests prove this. Then McKendree offers the opportunity.

Uniqueness, Inspiration
McKendree can take the time to consider these students, to help them, to inspire them.

What makes McKendree a cut above the others? People and their involvement. The campus itself, its traditions. Its fine staff, the friendly townspeople. There is a special distinct quality at McKendree.

You can literally say there is no place quite like it. This feeling is felt by all who first step on the campus.

"They look around and say, 'This place is different; I like it.'"

Many distinguished McKendree graduates now work all around the world, from the Pacific coast to Cape Cod and to be.

Local Students Awarded Trophies In Contest

Students from Logan and St. Margaret Mary Schools have won the four trophies of the Southern Illinois region in the annual poster posture contest, sponsored by the Illinois Chiropractic Society, Southern Illinois district.

An additional 18 students from Granite City were awarded certificates of merit in the contest. The awards were presented during the regular meeting of the Granite City District Board of Education Monday night at the board of education.

Stuart Williamson, a fifth grader at Logan School, was the recipient of the first-place trophy, and Randy Day, a classmate, was the second-place winner. Third and fourth place trophy winners were Mike Novacich and Janet Hoelter, both sixth grade students at St. Margaret Mary School.

The trophies were presented by Dr. Glen W. Filbert, president of the ICS district.

Students receiving certificates of merit at the meeting were David Lopez, Reynaldo Lopez and Bridget Copa of St. Joseph's School; John Robinson, David Blackwell, Mark Lange, Scott Gardner, David Willis and Tom Cottrell of Logan School; and Kathy Link, Mary Zotti, Brian Shute, Kenny Prazma, Jane and Janet Hoelter, Wendy Champion, Tim Sloss, and David Blum of St. Margaret Mary School.

Present at the ceremony were several regional and local chiropractors, including Dr. E. W. Walton, Dr. E. L. Strotheide, Dr. F. E. Shipley, Dr. J. R. Vastoloff and Dr. J. E. Weed.

Dr. Filbert commented all of the children who entered the contest for the "wide acceptance and understanding demonstrated in the posters with reference to posture and health, as well as their artistic content."

Dorian Dembski, a fifth grader at Our Land of Ransom Elementary School in Niles, Ill., was this year's grand finalist award winner. She was presented a trophy and a $100 U.S. Savings Bond at the ICS annual banquet in Chicago. The contest is open annually to fifth and sixth grade students designing a poster illustrating the importance of correct posture.

Retiring Professor To Receive Degree

A scholar who says he's convinced that man made a big mistake when he abandoned the cultural stage of hunting and fishing and invented writing will be awarded an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree by Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

George Sylvester Counts, 81-year-old distinguished visiting professor of education at SIU, will receive the degree in the evening session of SIU's commencement exercises beginning at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the SIU Arena.

Counts, a pre-eminent figure in American education over the past 55 years, is considered the top U.S. authority on Russian education. He will retire after the ceremony.

ROBLEE presents the Old World Book

There is a fine balance of the spiritual and the workaday world at McKendree. The college is neither convent nor factory. At McKendree, the student is equipped with today's skills.

What replacement is there for good solid reasoning and thought? McKendree does not produce a "runaway mind." McKendree offers the individual opportunity.

This is "why McKendree."

Illinois Public Welfare Outlay Up 250% in Span of Five Years

(Springfield Scene)
The enormity of the welfare dilemma is boggling. Where does government begin effectively coping with this overwhelming problem which threatens to consume the resources of state and local governments for maintenance of the resources needed to possibly arrest and control it?

The cost is tremendous in both human resources and tax dollars.

Through the month of April in Illinois, there were 827,201 persons benefiting from receiving public assistance.

The Illinois Department of Public Aid estimates it will spend $917.4 million for assistance through the end of the present fiscal year which ends July 1.

The Department also originally estimated the state will be liable for $1,246 billion in assistance in fiscal 1972—which would mean the state has increased its outlay for public welfare by 250% since 1967.

But the Bureau of the Budget trimmed $126 million from the request and included additional federal aid not available under present programs totaling $140 million—$65 million in direct aid either through the Family Assistance Plan or direct federal-state revenue sharing and $75 million in expanded services to potential or current recipients which could qualify the state for more federal aid under existing programs.

The $65 million from the Federal Family Assistance Program (H.R. 1) or revenue sharing is all but gone for FY 1972 since the bill has been reported out of the U. S. House Ways and Means Committee with an effective date of July 1, 1972.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 34 Thurs., June 10, 1971

However, if present trends continue, both the Bureau of the Budget and the Department of Public Aid may be low in their estimates of additional persons added to the welfare rolls and the money needed to maintain these persons.

As a result, the state could be faced with a deficit approaching between $250 million and $300 million more budgeted by the administration for welfare alone.

If this is the case, the state would have to make up the $126 million difference between the Department of Public Aid estimate and the Bureau of the Budget estimate, the $65 million expected from the Family Assistance Plan and a large portion of the expected $75 million in federal reimbursement for expanded aid—by increasing services and additional funds to service the excess caseload which was not expected by either of the state agencies.

If bills pending in the General Assembly calling for liberalized grants and expanded services for recipients were passed, this deficit could be compounded to a minimum of between $400 million and $500 million.

To pay for such increases would require drastic cuts in other state services and programs—some of which are designed to arrest the growing problem—or could necessitate a tax increase in a major state revenue source such as the income tax and/or the sales tax.

A third possibility is cuts in welfare grants, which the administration has pledged to maintain unless there is no other alternative.

Taxpayers are getting fed up with seeing more and more of their tax dollars drained into welfare payments, which next year will demand about 35% of the total state General Revenue and Common School funds resources.

At the present time, any containment of welfare costs looks dismal.

The governor recognized the potential in his special message to the legislature in 1968, the number of people reform when he indicated and the prospects for any federal state revenue sharing during fiscal 1972 are just as dim.

The governor's office estimated a lower total bill—$1,120 billion—based on an upswing in the economy and a better job market so the sharply increased welfare caseload will be arrested.

They project the caseload to increase, but the increase to be at a slower rate than it has been during FY 1971.

Another large federal program is General Assistance, which is financed locally or by the state and local governments.

The state assumes General Assistance costs when the revenue from a one mill local property tax is insufficient to provide for care of those persons who cannot qualify for federal-state categorical programs, mainly single persons and married couples without children.

In April of this year, there were 44,755 persons in this category with an estimated cost to the state—over and above local funds—of $112.3-million for fiscal year 1971.

In the categorical grant programs, federal matching funds provide roughly about 50% of such costs to Illinois while some states receive up to 80% in matching federal funds, mainly on the basis of lower per capita income in relation to other states.

In these programs, the titles of the grant areas are self-explanatory, with certain income and asset limitations placed on those claiming assistance.

The other category is Medical Assistance which covers all recipients who qualify under the categorical programs.

Persons and families with incomes below certain defined levels which are considered insufficient to pay their medical costs.

Generally, all those on assistance are put onto a budget which consists of food, clothing, personal essentials and household incidentals, rent and other special needs.

The grants paid to recipients in Illinois are substantially higher than those in many other states and particularly in surrounding states.

Because of these higher payments, there are charges made that an increasing number of recipients move to Illinois to take advantage of the grants.

While not all those persons who come to Illinois and go onto assistance come here expressly to take advantage of the state's welfare grant rates, some statistics do indicate the probability.

In 1968, the number of persons added to the assistance rolls with less than one year residency totaled 2,955. In 1969, the figure had increased to 4,276.

By 1970, the opening of cases with less than one year's residency totaled 5,819, with 2,990 in Cook County and 2,829 downstate.

The breakdown by program revealed 4,427 in Aid to Families with Dependent Children, 711 in Disability Assistance, 649 in Old Age Assistance, and 22 in Blind Assistance.

Of the 5,819 total, 25.8% were residing in the state for less than three months, 45.9% for three months but less than seven, and 28.3% had been in the state for seven months but less than one year.

The one-year residency was a requirement in Illinois before the Department of Health, Education and Welfare could add to the cost of welfare.

Congress amended the Social Security Act to mandate the granting of earned income exemptions in the amount of $30 plus one-third of monthly earnings of adults and out-of-school children in AFDC cases.

Interpreted by HEW regulations, this means a family of four with basic maintenance needs of $246 according to Illinois assistance standards will not leave the rolls until gross earnings exceed $375 a month ($9,375 per year) or, if child care costs $97.50 per month, until gross earnings reach $972 per month ($9,924 on an annual basis).

HEW also is pushing for a separation of services so a case-worker cannot both make a determination of need and provide social services.

To back up its push for separate services, HEW has provided, by regulation, a higher rate of federal financial participation for states which separate services.

This was done without a legislative mandate.

Another HEW requirement now makes it necessary to include psychiatric services as part of the medical assistance program.

Another HEW regulation requires the state to pay the same rates to hospitals as the Social Security Administration does.

This has increased hospital rates and forced the state to abandon its former policy of paying the lesser of either costs or charges.

HEW has issued a proposed regulation which will require the early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment of individuals under 21 years of age under the Medical Program.

The full amount of services must be furnished regardless of the limits imposed under the State Plan on the amount of such care and services.

States presently have some autonomy in the administration of categorical programs, but hardly a move made in Illinois without first checking with the federal government to see if the state will be out of conformity with federal regulations.

If the state is out of conformity in a procedure or practice, the state faces the threat of loss of federal matching funds.

The result is that the state is forced into more and more restrictive guidelines within which it must try to maintain some control as it is forced into higher administrative and grant costs.

Is there any way out of this gargantuan conundrum?

Can the present welfare system be altered to provide aid to the truly needy and help them break the cycle of dependency to become productive citizens, contributing to our society and at the same time provide financial relief to state and local government without merely shifting the burden of taxation from one taxing body to another?

Several proposals are presently being considered or have been proposed to alleviate the problem at both the state and federal levels.

In Illinois, the administration hopes of new federal funds from the Family Assistance Program which now appear not to be forthcoming until fiscal year 1973.

The other approach was to seek additional funds under present programs by initiating new services and expanding others which service the welfare recipient or the potential recipient.

Specifically, the expanded programs would be instituted to take advantage of present amendments to the Social Security act which would be continued under the 1971 amendments (HR 1), popularly called the Family Assistance Act, proposed last month by the U. S. House Ways and Means Committee.

The amendments would 75% matching funds for categorical aid in certain social welfare, educational and health service programs that are designed to increase the self-sufficiency of individuals.

To establish its eligibility for these categories, the state must amend its present state plan and submit it to the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Three such amendments are now pending approval by HEW, but approval is not anticipated in the near future.

Several other amendments for qualifying monies will be made in the near future as programs proposed for the Department of Children and Family Services, Corrections, and Mental Health, proposed by Gov. Ogilvie are passed by the legislature and submitted for approval.

Once the program is approved by HEW, the state is reimbursed for operation of the program from the date of application.

But the question remains how many services can be expanded and qualified for federal matching funds within present staff and facilities limitations within one year.

The other recent major proposals directly and closely tie into each other.

Gov. Ogilvie presented the legislature a message on welfare reform recently in which he suggested an 11-point program for holding the lid on public aid costs, provide for those truly in need and increase efforts to return those capable of self support into the job market.

The second major proposal is the reporting of HR 1 out of the U. S. House Ways and Means Committee; it revises the Social Security Act and provides for a federal takeover of the Blind, Aged and Disabled program.

Ways and Means Committee Chairman Wilbur Mills noted in a speech before the Illinois General Assembly that provisions of the bill would mean an additional $69 million to the state in FY 1973 and would provide federal support in all categorical classifications at FY 1972 levels.

However, the Congressional proposal also includes other provisions to lighten administration, medical costs and other areas which will go into effect either on enactment or on Jan. 1, 1972.

Almost all of the proposals made by Gov. Ogilvie in his welfare reform message pertaining to categorical grant programs are included as changes in administration and procedures required or authorized under HR 1.

Some of those areas which the Governor included in his message and are required or authorized by HR 1 are:

1. Enforcement of a strict work requirement and examination

2. To tighten administration, medical costs and other areas which will go into effect either on enactment or on Jan. 1, 1972.

2. Addition of public sector jobs.

3. New work programs, day care, family planning services and other back-up programs.

4. Tightening of welfare administrative procedures to require participants to prove economic status before receiving welfare, denying food stamps to those not truly in need, and reviewing employment eligibility.

5. Cracking down on deserting fathers for non-support of families.

The governor is adding more fraud detection investigators to find deserting fathers. The contributions from deserting fathers had fallen from 20.5% of cases in 1966 to 8.5% in 1971.

HR 1 also would make it a federal crime for deserting parents to travel in interstate commerce to escape such payments.

6. Simplification of welfare procedures and reduction in administrative requirements to qualify for federal aid.

7. Tightening of requirements for medical costs. HR 1 would authorize the states to work cooperatively with the federal government in attempting to hold down such problems as hospital costs, nursing home case costs, medical use abuse, limit in the length of stays at hospitals and requirements that recipients pay some token fee for the medical services they receive out of their basic grants.

This has become a major problem during the last several years and particularly since Medicaid went into effect in 1966.

The rise in medical costs since 1967 under the problem, which Gov. Ogilvie noted, "has grown at an unbearable rate."

The Federal Family Assistance plan also contains provisions, particularly in the area of covering the "working poor" and in increased costs.

For example, provisions of HR 1 would hike federal welfare costs from $8.9 billion at the end of 1970 to $18.9 billion by FY 1975, and the number of persons on welfare would increase from 12.4 million to slightly more than 25 million in the same period.

Estimated U.S. Tax Payable by June 15

Individuals filing 1971 declarations of estimated federal income tax must pay the second installment of tax due by June 15. Taxpayers who first met the requirements for filing an estimate after April 1, 1971, but before June 2, are required to file on Form 1040-ES and pay at least one-third of the tax by June 15. These persons should use declaration-voucher No. 2.

Jay G. Philpot, District Director of Internal Revenue for Central and Southern Illinois, said today that taxpayers whose anticipated income during 1971 has changed may be required to amend their declarations.

Space to compute an amended estimate is provided in the estimated tax package received by taxpayers.

Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax," which furnishes detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by dropping a post card to Forms, P.O. Box 1468, Springfield, Illinois 62705.

Darrel Weible to Attend 3-Week Insurance School

Darrel Weible, 3228 Harvard Place, has been awarded a Michigan Mutual Liability Co. scholarship to the 1971 School for Mutual Insurance Agents at Oberlin College, Ohio, July 11 through 31.

Weible is an employee of The Bond Men, Inc., a large multiple lines insurance agency in St. Louis. The all-expense scholarship includes tuition, room and board during the three week curriculum which features intensive instruction in property and casualty insurance.

Although the provisions to tighten welfare procedures and eligibility standards are considered a much-needed step in the right direction. The potential ramifications of this massive proposal, HR 1, must be fully analyzed to determine their full impact on Illinois.

Other proposals to cope with this age-old problem have been tried in the past and the problem gets worse.

Whether such a massive approach to the welfare dilemma will be a panacea or will compound the problem is yet to be seen.

NEW PARKING AREA. Paving of the area along the east side of the Venice City Hall for parking is expected to be completed this week. Fire trucks, background, and police cars are being parked on the parking lot at the rear of the building while work is being finished. The area being paved formerly was part of the lawn and sidewalk surrounding the building.

Easement for Temporary City Road Becomes Issue

A letter from a Granite City realtor notifying the city that he must revoke an easement granted last month for installation of a temporary road unless the city assumes responsibility for any damages was "riled" by the city council Monday night without action to assume liability.

The letter was sent to the council by Ralph Morris of Morris Realty Co. who earlier had granted the city an easement to install a temporary roadway between Morgan and Emme Streets to provide a traffic outlet for residents along Morgan Street while Roosevelt Avenue is being paved.

Morris provided the easement connecting with the dead-end of Morgan Street after some council members complained in their May 24 meeting that Morgan Street residents were "locked in" by the paving operation.

Morris informed the council that he has been threatened by a law suit by Junior Smith, 2905 Emme St. Smith, in a separate letter to the council, complained of the new roadway because his insurance company has told him it will not be responsible for water damages or other damages that could be caused by the new road.

Discusses City Responsibility

Smith, who was present in the audience at Monday night's meeting, said he had talked to Alderman Walter Nann about the roadway and that Nann had disclaimed any responsibility on the part of the city for any damages that might occur on or Chevrolet's Summer Sale on all Chevelles and Camaros.

Chevrolet's Summer Sale ends the end of June. It's a sale on every model of our mid-size Chevelle and sports-tune Camaro.

It's a simple sale to help you save money. Simply order your Chevelle or Camaro with four features we think you'd want anyhow.

They are white stripe tires, the deluxe seat belts, a set of wheel covers and an AM/FM radio or any stereo equipment. (Stereo available only on Chevelle.)

By buying the package, you start summer by getting a great deal on America's most popular mid-size car or the one the readers of Car and Driver magazine picked as 1971's Best Sports Car—the Camaro. Which, you've got to admit, isn't a half bad start.

Impala. The big family car a family man can afford.

Impala delivers you and your family more standard equipment than any other car at its price. Turbo Hydra-matic transmission with only V8 and power steering are now standard. And that's not all.

It has built-in power front disc brakes, a built-in power ventilation system, a built-in double-panel roof that's stronger and more built-in room than any other car in its field (so says Automotive Industries magazine).

Not only is Impala traditionally America's No. 1 seller, it's traditionally high in holding its resale value.

See the U.S.A. in comfort, and at reasonable prices.

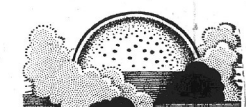

Nova. Mechanics say it has the least mechanical problems.

Or how about a Nova? You know, a lot of people talk about how trouble-free and economical their cars are. But Motor Service and Service Station Management magazines asked garage owners and mechanics what they thought—which ones really have the least mechanical problems and are easiest to maintain.

Nova came out on top, right at the very top. Nova is small enough to fit neatly into garages and tight parking spaces. Big enough to seat five in the coupe, six in the sedan.

It's economical in city driving; yet hefty enough, with standard six or V8 engine, to give you a solid ride on any highway.

We're bringing back that good old summertime air, too.

Happily, things are looking up in the battle against air pollution. Because, fortunately, a lot has been done by Chevrolet in the past 10 years to check pollution caused by our cars.

In the early 1960's we began installing emission controls on our engines. And now, every 1971 Chevrolet is equipped to reduce hydrocarbon output by 50% and carbon monoxide emissions by about two-thirds.

You can help, too. Keep your car tuned and those pollution controls checked regularly.

Let that sun shine in.

Remember, buckling your seat and shoulder belts is an idea you can live with.

Now, have a great summer. Chevrolet

Reserve Fund for Library Building Urged

The establishment of a reserve fund for possible future use in purchase of a new library building was requested of the

Granite City Council Monday night. The request was contained in a communication sent to the council by the Public Library Board which pointed out that the proposal had been drafted in a meeting of the library rate

Expansion of the fund would be made possible by adding to it the year-end unexpended balance of the library fund, the Board suggested. The library fund is a special tax account and has its own levy and tax in a meeting of the library rate.

The request specified that such a fund could be used for purchase of a library site and buildings and equipment, and for repairs and alterations of library buildings and equipment.

At the same time the library board submitted a proposed new budget for the 1971-72 fiscal year in the amount of $196,185 to meet operating costs of the public library and the book mobile.

The Finance Committee is now compiling budget figures for all city departments. The council also received and referred to the Finance Committee a proposed 1971-72 budget of $132,445 for the firemen's pension fund account. The request was filed by Charles Hileman, secretary of the Firemen's Pension Board.

Acting upon recommendations of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, the council concurred in the appointment of two new members of the fire department, Kenneth Druhe and Everett Brown, and the promotion of Edward McGovern from pipeman to engineer.

A floodlighting demonstration by the Illinois Power Co. at the city hall was given after the council session. The demonstration was made to show council members how the building would appear if permanently floodlighted.

MRS. ROBERT R. ALFORD JR., whose wedding was Saturday at Our Mother of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Maryville. She is the former Miss Joyce Marie Cowgill of Collinsville.

Miss Joyce Cowgill Weds Robert Ray Alford Jr.

Miss Joyce Marie Cowgill became the bride of Robert Ray Alford Jr. in a most ceremony Saturday at Our Mother of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Maryville, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Cowgill of Collinsville. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray Alford, reside at 2321 E. 23rd St.

The Rev. James R. Collins performed the double ring ceremony and a reception was held in the Teak Room of the Bel-Aire Bowl, Belleville, with 200 guests attending.

A full length gown of white silk organza trimmed in Alençon lace and seed pearls was worn by Saturday's bride. A sheer lace yoke and long full sleeves were accented with re-embroidered appliques of lace at the cuffs and high neckline. Lace motifs traced the front panel of the slightly full skirt that swept into a cathedral train.

The bridal veil was bouffant and shoulder length and was secured with a petal headpiece of lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and apricot tinted roses.

Mrs. Robert L. Cowgill III, sisters-in-law to the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Sharon Belobradic, the bride's cousin and Miss Rosan Dettenmeyer, were the bridesmaids.

The attendants were gown-like in apricot chiffon, fashioned with long sleeves and scooped necklines. Their flowers were bouquets of orchid and apricot baby mums.

As his best man, Mr. Alford chose Robert L. Cowgill III, brother to the bride, and the groomsmen were Gale Huffstutler and Gary Lee Alford, the groom's uncle. Ushers were Darrell Grindstaff and Rex Stevens, the latter a cousin to the bridegroom.

The former Miss Cowgill is a graduate of St. Teresa Academy, East St. Louis. She is employed with Aetna Life and Casualty Co., St. Louis.

Her husband, a graduate of Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, is employed as a claims adjuster for Republic Insurance Co., St. Louis.

The newlyweds presently are honeymooning in the Ozark region of Missouri. Upon their return they will make their home in Madison.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN officers for the 1971-72 year at their installation. Seated (left to right) are Mrs. Helen Christich, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lil Marzluft, first vice-president; Mrs. Pauline Wein, president; Mrs. Bonnie Lazenby, second vice-president; Mrs. Ruby Parker, secretary; and Mrs. Sylvia Wright, treasurer. Standing (from the left) are Mrs. Ruth Walk, civic participation chairman;

Mrs. Edna Kohlbrecher, legislation chairman; Mrs. Lorene Sadrakula, finance chairman; Mrs. Emylee Alford, retiring president; Miss Dorothy Fink, installing officer and past state president; Mrs. Dolores Allen, District 14 chairman and assistant installing officer; Mrs. Genevieve Grady, personal development chairman; Mrs. Maxine Butler, world affairs chairman; and Mrs. Ann Burton, public relations chairman.

Duff-Noeth Nuptials at St. Elizabeth Church

Lighted candles in gold tiered candelabra illuminated the sanctuary of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for the wedding Saturday of Miss Joyce Ann Noeth and Raymond Edward Duff.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Noeth, 2327 St. Bernard Ave. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Duff, reside at 1405 N. Franklin St., Litchfield.

Altar bouquets of white gladiolus and blue daisies, green ferns and white satin pew bows, tied along the carpeted aisle, decorated the church for the 2 p.m. Nuptial Mass. The Reverend Lawrence J. Mattingly officiated.

Escorted by her father who gave her in marriage, the former Miss Noeth wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta designed on princess lines. A sheer yoke of Chantilly lace extended into a drop shoulder effect and long puffed sleeves were cuffed with lace.

Chantilly lace also formed the tiny standup collar and cascaded down the front of the bodice and the A-line skirt. The skirt, edged with lace, swept back to form the chapel train. A shoulder length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a cluster of Alençon lace and organza loops and she carried a cascade bouquet of white rose buds and baby breath.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Ruth Noeth, who chose a long blue chiffon gown over blue taffeta. Sheer sleeves, full and long, were set into the Empire style bodice and white lace accents were used to enhance the cuffs and stand-up collar.

On her hair, the maid of honor wore a short blue veil secured with blue-tinted daisies and net loops and her flowers were a cascade of white rose buds, blue daisies and baby breath.

Serving as best man was Merle Duff, the bridegroom's brother. The ushers were Charles Dailey and George Noeth.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Noeth selected a lace-over-crepe ensemble in blue with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a pink knit suit, also accented with white. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

The organist was Mrs. Raymond Voorhees who accompanied her husband as he sang "O Lord Most Holy," by Cesar Franck; "Ave Maria," by Franz Schubert; and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother." The latter was sung as the bride placed a miniature bouquet before the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Immediately following the ceremony, more than 200 guests greeted the bride and groom during a reception at the Round Table Restaurant, Collinsville.

After a wedding trip to Arkansas, the couple will reside near Bloomington, Ill., where both young people are employed as teachers.

The former Miss Noeth was graduated from Granite City High School and Eastern Illinois University.

Her husband attended Litchfield schools, received his bachelor's degree from Western Illinois University and a master's degree from Eastern Illinois University.

The bride's parents entertained members of the wedding party at dinner Friday evening at the Rose Bowl Restaurant.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND E. DUFF. Their wedding was Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church. The bride is the former Joyce Ann Noeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Noeth, 2327 St. Bernard Ave.

Names Being Sought for Proposed Plaque to Honor Dead of 4 Wars.

To the Editor: Amvets Post 51 has tentative plans for a bronze memorial plaque to contain the names of World War I, World War II, Korean War and Vietnam War veterans who were killed in action in these wars.

Memorial Park, across from St. Elizabeth Hospital, is the appropriate location for this plaque.

We hope that those who paid the supreme sacrifice will have their names enshrined on this bronze epitaph, to be rendered by the citizens of Granite City for their valor and sacrifice.

I would like to make a request of the relatives of the servicemen who lost their lives in World War I, World War II, Korean War and Vietnam War, I have the current list on Vietnam, but I can't locate an authentic list for the other three wars.

If the relatives of these men would contact me by telephone or letter on these three wars, giving me the names or any related documents or newspaper clippings for our records and verification, we will appreciate it.

If any names are omitted from this bronze honor roll, as time goes on it will be more difficult to acquire them.

Also, I would like for World War I organization or other veterans' organization with a list of such names to forward them to me. Or if any individual knows of these, I would like the information.

The Amvets is thankful to the Granite City park board for permitting us to bring up this patriotic proposal.

Our fallen comrades, in fighting and dying, remembered us. Let us not forget to remember them.

Letters Help Governor Do His Job

By GOVERNOR RICHARD B. OGILVIE

Everybody likes to get mail, and I'm no exception.

This past month we counted 9,037 letters and telegrams which we call "issue mail." And every one of them is answered.

This figure does not include requests for help or information, letters dealing with office appointments or speaking engagements, or the letters that don't fit into any regular category.

A very high proportion of the letters are well done, to the point, and polite—qualities reflecting the education and stability of Illinois citizens.

It takes two very competent secretaries most of the day to open and route the three daily deliveries to me or my staff.

The two secretaries, both mothers themselves, find a special delight in the letters from young people.

A recent letter, for example, was signed by the Junior Class of Thornton Fractional South High School.

In it they told how pleased they have been with a young teacher, Alice Burczyk, and asked me to send her a letter of congratulations on their behalf. The students wrote:

"Since she is such a fantastic teacher and person (she is one of us—she understands all our problems and does a great job at solving them) we would like for you to do us a big favor."

"We would like for you to send her a letter of recognition, thanking her for being such a wonderful and outstanding young educator (she is only 25)."

Now, who wouldn't like to answer a letter as nice as that one?

So, Miss Burczyk, the lunch hours you gave up, and the "fantastic job" you did as class sponsor to create "a class that can walk through the halls boasting of our achievements" won you a rave letter.

And my letter to you is intended to amplify both the praise of the students and your own pride in them.

Issue mail, of course, varies with the news from state government and the Legislature.

One special issue brought a burst of mail—the proposal that able-bodied persons on welfare be given a chance to do useful public service jobs if employment cannot be found elsewhere.

An Olympia Fields man wrote, praising the proposal, and I'm no exception.

"I have never written a state official before. However, I feel so strongly about this issue that I simply had to tell you."

A Bloomington man wrote: "If you can make this program work in the manner you described, I feel I can even forgo my tax for the state income tax."

I wonder if he knows the sorry state Illinois schools and communities would be in if there had not been bipartisan support for new state financing.

A Decatur lawyer wrote two short sentences: "Your position on welfare is absolutely right. I hope you stick to your guns."

A teacher at Eisenhower High School in Decatur wrote the kind of letter that a governor finds most difficult to answer.

Why, she asked, does my son have to serve a second hitch in Vietnam after being wounded the first time?

Then she posed a list of questions of duty and conscience, and concluded:

"I sincerely hope that you can help me find answers to some of the questions that I have asked. I would then send copies of the correspondence to President Nixon."

Some of the delightful letters from children pose a few problems that I can't promise to solve.

One little boy complained that since moving to a new town, he had "been picked on too much by other boys," and wanted me "to make them stop right now."

Three girls from French Lick, Ind., wanted me to save the fast-disappearing wild horses of the western states.

Perhaps it's characteristic of teenagers that so many of the letters are signed, "Your Friend," with the name following.

Many of the children's letters express a deep concern about pollution.

I am grateful that the legislators of our state—and the voters—provided state government with the laws and the money to answer these letters attractively.

As I said, everybody likes to get mail. The "issue" letters are few, and the rest give me some welcome insights on the job I have to do.

Chance for Exposition Hall, Dental School If Public Insists on Legislative Approval

The Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce board on Tuesday night endorsed Senate Bills 1011 and 1012, which call for construction of a $15 million convention-exposition center in the Madison-St. Clair Counties area, and Senate Bill 1213, which appropriates $30 million to construct the proposed School of Dental Medicine at Southern Illinois University's Southwest campus.

These bills have strong local and business backing but they are not assured of passage in Springfield, where the next few days will prove decisive.

Citizens and organizations could be influential through strong and immediate backing of the legislation. Their support should be communicated as directly as possible to Governor Ogilvie and to Illinois representatives and senators.

As Senator Sam M. Vadalabene told the local Chamber directors, funds mentioned in Bill 1213 represent "the state's share and only one-third of the total cost of the facility. The rest of the money is to come from the federal government." The dental school has received full approval at all state governing levels and it is vital that a start be made without undue delay.

Discussing Bills 1011 and 1012, Vadalabene emphasized that "money to guarantee the bonds that will be sold to build the convention center comes from the Agricultural Premium Fund, the Service Recognition Bond, Interest and Retirement Bonds and the Metropolitan Fair and Exposition Authority Reconstruction Fund."

There are no new taxes involved. This is the same source of funds used to build the $72 million new State Office Building in Chicago. It is my opinion that not only is a center of this type needed in our area, but as the second most populous area in the state, we have strong right to it.

Those familiar with the General Assembly say the convention center proposal is in trouble at this stage because of "personalities and parochialism." This is extremely unfortunate because the plan has great merit and great need; it could set a pattern for similar exhibition halls and performing arts centers at heavily-populated areas throughout the state.

Bills 1011 and 1012 already have passed the Senate. The same observers who foresee difficulty in the House say the exposition center bills could be salvaged and passed if the people of Southern Illinois quickly make it crystal clear to the governor and legislators that they solidly support affirmative action.

Some of the delightful letters from children pose a few problems that I can't promise to solve.

Ecologists May Turn Clock Back to the Not-So-Good 'Good Old Days'

(Second of a series from a talk by Thomas R. Shepard Jr., publisher of Look magazine.)

They worried for nothing. It's something to think about. One final comment on the subject.

Members of the Disaster Lobby took back with fond nostalgia to the "good old days" when there weren't any nasty ecological problems, the air was clean and the animals and drive people to distraction with misleading advertisements.

Well, when the good old days like in America 150 years ago.

For one thing, it was very brief. Life expectancy was 38 years for males. And it was a grueling 38 years.

The work week was 72 hours. The average pay was $300. Per year, that is. The women had it worse. Housewives worked 98 hours a week, and there wasn't a dishwasher, or vacuum cleaner to be had.

The food was monotonous and scarce. The clothes were ragged. In the winter, you froze. And in summer, you sweated.

And when an epidemic came—and they came almost every year—it would probably carry off someone in your family.

Chances are that in your entire lifetime, you would never hear the sound of an orchestra or see a movie or travel more than 20 miles from the place you were born.

Ladies and gentlemen, whatever the American businessmen have done to bring us out of that paradise of 150 years ago, I say let's give them a grateful pat on the back—not a knife in it.

Now I'm not a Pollyanna. I am aware of the problems we face and of the need to find solutions and put them into effect. But the bottom line is, I praise for the many dedicated Americans who are devoting their lives to making this a better place to live.

The point I am trying to Plan for Second High School in District Nine 'Will Not Cost the Public a Cent'

School elections on construction projects usually also carry a price tag—taxes or bonds with which new facilities are to be financed.

A referendum proposed for Granite City Community Unit District Nine July 13, if passed, would authorize a $3,850,000 high school at Nameoki and Maryville Roads at no additional cost to taxpayers.

The key to the proposal is that voters in the late 1960s approved bond issues. Among other improvements, it provided $3,600,000 for the Nameoki-Maryville site, where a grade school and junior high school were to be constructed in a way that could be converted, through a later addition, into a second high school.

Changing enrollment patterns now indicate that the high school should be established at this time without the intermediate step originally planned.

With a new elementary school being built on Old Alton Road, another school needed farther to the east. More high school space is required at this time, and adjustment of grade assignments will enable present junior high school students to attend the new high school.

In addition to the use of the bond account, the voting will deal with transfer of an existing special education construction fund for special classrooms.

Happily, the whole project "will not cost the public a cent more" than what it already has approved and already is paying. Superintendent Bob J. Davis told the school board this week. The board will meet next week to further discuss the plan and to consider a specific election date.

Downtown Religious Landmark Will Be Razed And Replaced by New Niedringhaus Church

A vote of confidence in the Granite City downtown area has been given by members of the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

Their "over the top" building fund contributions include the existing church to be razed and a new one built at the same location. The present educational building will remain in use.

Niedringhaus Church always has been a principal landmark. It faced what once was a circular park and roadway, the site later being made triangular.

The triangular Granite City post office occupied the triangle for a number of years. It then was torn down and Civic Park was created, affording a better view of the familiar Niedringhaus Church and of the other buildings surrounding the park.

Although still attractive, the church developed structural problems that left only two alternatives—build elsewhere or replace the existing church. The latter plan has been chosen, and a modern new religious edifice will rise at 20th Street and Delmar Avenue in the heart of the central business district.

Court—Good Grammar But No Good Taste?

"At first blush"—and that's an interesting phrase which U. S. Supreme Court Justice John M. Harlan included in June 7 ruling extending free speech to obscenity—four letters words "seem too inconsequential" for consideration by the highest court in the land.

Justice Harlan agreed that the words might have been better spent. But Harlan, in explaining the decision that public use of naughty words is not a crime, added that the issue is "of no small constitutional significance."

Having served a hitch in the Army, we don't blush upon hearing such words, but would blush if required by the justices to use them, especially in the hope their frequently questionable logic will not take them that far.

If they would have asked us, "What do you want—good grammar or good taste?" we would have been happy to answer, "Both."

Ecologists May Turn Clock Back to the Not-So-Good 'Good Old Days'

(Second of a series from a talk by Thomas R. Shepard Jr., publisher of Look magazine.)

But that's not the whole story. In many countries, famine was once a periodic visitor. Then, largely because of food surpluses made possible by modern techniques, food became relatively rare.

So you can credit this insecticide with saving additional hundreds of millions of lives.

Then, in 1962, a lady named Rachel Carson wrote a book called "Silent Spring." It was a warning that DDT had killed some fish and some birds, and made our most powerful and most charitable nation on earth.

No, the danger today resides in the Disaster Lobby—those creep-hangers who, for personal gain or out of sheer ignorance, are undermining the American system and threatening the lives and fortunes of the American people.

When I speak of a threat to lives, I mean it literally. A classic example of the dire things that can happen when the Disaster Lobby gets busy is the DDT story.

It begins during World War II when a safe, cheap and potent new insecticide made its debut. Known as DDT, it proved its value almost overnight.

Grain fields once ravaged by insects began producing bumper crops. Marshland became habitable. And the death rate in many countries fell sharply.

According to the World Health Organization, malaria fatalities dropped four million a year in the 1930s to less than a million by 1960.

Other insect-borne diseases also lessened their grip. Encephalitis, Yellow fever, Typhus.

Wherever DDT was used, the affliction abated. It has been estimated that DDT saved more human beings who would have died of the diseases it kept alive today because of DDT.

The Masquers' production of "Mame" tonight and Friday night at the BAC-Miners Theatre, Collinsville, will feature several talented newcomers to the organization. Tickets will be available at the door.

F. Gordon Mueller of Granite City will be seen as Dwight Babcock, the stuffy "guardian" of what he considers young Patrick's "proper" education.

Mueller is a speech instructor at Granite City High School. He holds a bachelor degree from SIU-SW and master degree in speech and drama from Central Michigan University. While at Central University, he was author and playwright of a work entitled "Midst Pleasures and Palaces."

He appeared in SIU-SW productions of "The Glass Menagerie" as Tom, and as Peter in "The Diary of Anne Frank." He directed a production of "Wry on the Rocks."

At GCHS he was director of the Faculty Players production of "Barfot in the Park." Although tonight is his first appearance on-stage with the Masquers, he was stage manager for "The Crucible" earlier this year.

Gail Hamilton will be seen as Patrick's "nanny," Agnes Gooch. A vocal music teacher in Granite City, she holds a bachelor degree from Illinois State University at Normal and is working toward a master degree from SIU-SW.

She is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon sorority, the Women's Association of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and the Evening Etude, and is active in the First Presbyterian Church of Granite City.

Her stage credits include roles in "Gypsy" (Rose) and "Guys and Dolls," and musical director for "The Music Man" with the East Bank Players in Granite City.

Mrs. Edith Anderson of East St. Louis will portray Vera Charles, the "First Lady of the American Theatre," and Mame's closest friend, Mrs. Anderson is presently on leave of absence from Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., where she is a secretary.

She has been active in many community groups, and has performed for several clubs in the St. Louis area, including the Junior Wednesday Club's Musical Revue and the Southwest Bell "Phone Follies." At present, most of her time is taken up by her son, Kirk, who is less than a year old.

Ron Pennell of Granite City will be seen as Beauregard Pickett Jackson Burnside in "Mame."

He is a teacher in the GCHS English department and is also debate coach and drama instructor. He obtained a bachelor degree in speech from Eastern Illinois University and also holds a master degree in theatre from St. Louis University. He is a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity and Alpha Epsilon Rho (national radio and TV fraternity) and is listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Previous stage roles include Orgon in "Tartuffe" with the Eastern Players; Ishmael in "Moby Dick" with the City Players of St. Louis; and Sir Thomas More in "A Man for All Seasons" for the St. Louis University Players.

Pennell also appeared in the Granite City Faculty Players' production of "Barfot in the Park," as Paul Bratter.

Prior to "Mame," he was in Masquers productions of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," "The Sound of Music" (he won the "Mosquer Award" as best actor of the season as Captain Von Trapp) and "Tea and Sympathy." He also directed the group's previous production of Arthur Miller's "The Crucible."

A member of the Masquers board of directors, he has just finished a term as vice-president of the organization.

The role of the Japanese houseboy, Ito, will be portrayed by Jay Frey of Collinsville.

He has appeared in several Masquers productions, most notably in "Sunday in New York," "Tea and Sympathy," "Rumpelstiltskin," "A Thorough Carnival" and as Giles Corey in "The Crucible." In addition, he has been elected to the office of vice-president of the Masquers board for the coming year.

View Graduation At Army Base

Army Private First Class Charles E. Ringering was graduated and promoted to his present rank in ceremonies at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., last week. He has been assigned to Radio-Communication School at Fort Knox, Ky., for Advanced Individual Training.

Viewing the impressive parade and ceremonies were the former Miss Rebecca Evans of Effingham, his 6½-month-old daughter, Christina Sue, and the soldier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ringering of Rural Route One.

Pfc. Ringering, 21, entered the service in March. He was employed at Granite City Steel Co.

At Leonard Wood, he was a member of the 4th Battalion, 2nd Brigade, known as the Sainter Saints. The battalion's mascot, a huge St. Bernard dog, marched with the unit and walked with the battalion commanding officer during the latter's review of the graduating recruits, Mrs. Ringering noted.

HOST CLEANS CARPET WITHOUT WATER — FEDER HUBER NIEDRINGHAUS & DELMAR

Miss Virginia Yoder, Sgt. Craig Hiscott Wed

An out-of-town wedding of interest here was that Saturday afternoon in Lakewood, Ohio, of Miss Virginia Yoder of Lakewood and Sergeant Craig Gerald Hiscott, U. S. Air Force, son of Judge and Mrs. Merlin Hiscott of Granite City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas O. Yoder of Lakewood.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 4:30 o'clock Saturday at the Lakewood United Methodist Church. A reception followed at the Cleveland Yachting Club, attended by more than 150 guests.

The Reverend Dr. Joseph Albrecht heard the couple exchange their vows before a circular altar decorated with arrangements of white summer blossoms and greenery. Burning tapers in six-branched candelabra lighted the sanctuary.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Yoder was lovely in a pea de soie gown fashioned on princess lines. The sleeveless bodice, designed with a square neckline, was detailed with two tiny bows of peau. Re-embroidered lace motifs were sprinkled the length of the softly draped skirt and the wattleau train was attached at the back waist with a large bow.

A handmade veil, full length and edged with delicate lace appliques, was secured with a crown of lace encrusted with iridescent and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white cymbidium orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Gail Annette Yoder, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Catherine Greene of St. Louis, a college room-mate, and Mrs. Virginia Yoder, the bride's sister-in-law.

The attendants wore identical French silk tulle gowns in periwinkle blue. The sleeveless bodices were molded into high midriffs with scoop necklines and the full length skirts were fashioned in modified A-line style.

Brief veils formed the headpieces and their flowers were blue bachelor buttons, tiny white carnations and pink rosebuds woven into colonial nosegays and festooned with blue and white satin ribbons.

Sgt. Hiscott chose as his best man Robert Norris of Batesville, Ark. The groomsmen were Robert Hanna of Wilmette, Ill., Joseph Emmons of Wayne, Pa., and Bill Ernst of Chicago.

Heading the corps of ushers were Garvin A. Butler III of Granite City, the groom's cousin, and Gary Yoder, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Yoder appeared in a mid-length frock of aqua crepe with a matching accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations.

The bridegroom's mother selected an apricot ensemble with complementary accessories. She wore a corsage of green orchids.

Immediately after the reception, the couple departed on a honeymoon trip. They will reside at Abilene, Tex., where the bridegroom is stationed at Dyess Air Force Base.

Sgt. Hiscott was graduated from Granite City High School in 1964 and from Westminster College at Fulton, Mo., in 1968.

He returned March 30 from duty with the Air Force in Vietnam. His fraternity is Kappa Alpha and prior to entering the service was active in the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolays.

The former Miss Yoder made her debut in 1967 at the Cotton Society Ball in Cleveland. She was graduated this year from William Woods College in Fulton, Mo. and from the Lakewood High School in 1967. During her high school years the bride was a member of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Judge and Mrs. Hiscott entertained members of the wedding party at the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Stouffer's Restaurant in Rocky River, Ohio.

Also guests at the dinner were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gentry E. Massie, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gavin A. Butler Jr., all of Granite City; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lollar of St. Joseph, Mo.; and Mr. and Mrs. Erma Adridge of Pattonsburg, Mo.

MRS. CRAIG G. HISCOTT. The former Virginia Ruth Yoder, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas O. Yoder of Lakewood, Ohio, who was married Saturday to Sergeant Craig G. Hiscott, U. S. Air Force, son of Judge and Mrs. Merlin Hiscott of Granite City.

Concert Sunday At the Historic Jarrot Mansion

The summer tourist season at the historic Jarrot Mansion at Cahokia will open Sunday afternoon, June 13, with a free public lawn concert by members of Musicians Local 717 of East St. Louis.

Richard M. Stoltz, descendant of the Charrand family of Cahokia, will conduct a 25-piece brass band from 2 to 4 p.m. The Jarrot Mansion Committee arranged the entertainment as part of an effort to "restore the memory of the gracious way of life" of which the Jarrot Mansion, built in 1798-1805, was a Southwestern Illinois center throughout the 19th century.

The committee, organized in June 1966 under the sponsorship of the St. Clair County Historical Society, will review its first five years of work in an exhibit inside the mansion. Objectives of the committee are to keep the house open to visitors and gradually restore it. Miss Rose Josephine Boylan is chairman.

Visitors are to provide their own lawnchairs. Soft drinks will be available. The mansion is located one block east of the intersection of Illinois Routes Three and 137.

Regional Report -- Schools, Tax Grants, Exposition Center

(Metro-East Industrial Development Corporation)

Area high school sports teams have fared well in state competition. The Belleville West High School golf team won the 1971 Illinois state high school championship. This is Belleville West's third golf championship in three years.

The Alton High School track and field team tied for third place in the Illinois high school track and field meet. Lincoln East St. Louis was eighth. Craig Virgin of the Lebanon High team finished second in the two-mile race with a time of 8:57.3. This was reported to be the first time in the United States that a sophomore ran the two mile race in under nine minutes.

Alton has lost two of its private schools. The 136-year-old Monticello College graduated its last class of women. In the face of declining enrollment and rising costs, the Monticello campus was sold last year to the Lewis and Clark Community College for $4 million.

A Monticello College Foundation has been formed to carry on the tradition of the promotion of female education. Declining enrollments and rising costs also led to the closing of the Western Military Academy in Alton. The school was founded on its present site in 1879 and became a military school in 1888. Enrollment in the last year was 160 students, down from a maximum of 300 students 10 years ago.

The city of Collinsville has received over $4 million in federal and state grants to help build its $8 million sewer project.

The federal government has allotted the city an additional $1.4 million for the sewer program; earlier, the city was awarded $1.2 million under provisions of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

The Illinois Water Pollution Control Board has announced that it will grant Collinsville $1.2 million. Last week, the Collinsville City Council authorized issuance of up to $1.8 million in revenue bonds for the major sewer project.

In Godfrey Township, the Board of Auditors approved an ordinance providing for issuance of $2.5 million in bonds for construction of the Godfrey area's proposed new water system.

In East St. Louis, the Pfizer Co. has agreed to donate up to $100,000 for repairs to the East

$41,231 in FinesParceled to Cities

A total of $41,231 in traffic fines collected in Madison County during May have been distributed to county municipalities, it was announced by William V. Portell, circuit clerk.

Gross collections included Granite City, $1,854; Madison, $668; Pontoon Beach, $71; and Venice, none. County fines totaled $6,614 and overweight truck fines totaled $5,591.

St. Louis sewage treatment plant; acidic wastes from the Pfizer plant have damaged the treatment facility. Thirty-two graduates of an Intensive Training and Employment Program (ITEP) courses run by the State Department of Conservation were presented their certificates by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie.

Eighteen of the graduates of the East St. Louis program will become rangers in state parks. The other graduates will work in a variety of positions in the Illinois Department of Conservation.

Bills providing for the construction of an exposition center in this region and the creation of a cultural authority in charge of the center narrowly passed the Illinois Senate.

By a vote of 30 to 22, the Senate agreed to create a 12-member Metro East Exposition and Performing Arts Authority and to authorize the sale of revenue bonds at 5% interest to construct the convention center. The legislation, which is similar to that creating McCormick Place in Chicago, now goes to the House.

Senator Robert Coulson, Republican from the Chicago suburb of Waukegan, opposed the bill and predicted that it will not pass the House.

The Belleville City Council has voted 9-7 to request federal funds for a proposed 200-unit low-rent housing project for elderly citizens.

Under the council's resolution, the housing project of senior citizens would be operated by the St. Clair County Housing Authority; $80,000 has been requested of the Federal Housing Assistance Administration for site selection and project design.

The Alton City Council has annexed 1,000 acres of state property to the city of Alton. Included in the annexation are 239 acres of the Alton hospital complex and another 735 acres of state property which the city will purchase for a recreation area. The vote of the council was 11-3.

In general area news, the city of Edwardsville has dedicated a monument to the five Illinois governors who once lived in that municipality; the Chamber of Commerce of East St. Louis is heading a drive to clean up littered lots in East St. Louis; the 113th annual Belleville public school picnic and parade was held.

Harry Lutz, retired manager of the Mobil Oil Refinery at Saugat, has been appointed executive vice-president of the East Side Associated Industries; Illinois Commonage Corporation has registered 500,000 shares of stock worth $2.7 million with the Illinois Secretary of State.

Classroom-Office Building May Switch to Carbondale

A Classroom-Office building authorized for construction at Southern Acres, near Carterville, may be shifted to the Carbondale Campus of Southern Illinois University if a resolution adopted by the Illinois Board of Higher Education is approved by the SIU Board of Trustees.

If the shift is to be made, then a request for a new power plant for the SIU Southern Acres Campus will be withdrawn.

These proposals are in line with Phase III of the Illinois Master Plan for Higher Education, requiring modification of plans for development of the Vocational-Technical Institute and integration of the Institute with the Carbondale Campus.

The SIU Board has approved a contract of $2,727,784 for the previously authorized VTI Classroom-Office building, but the Illinois Building Authority rejected the bid approval pending developments pertaining to the relocation.

The two other buildings, the Allied Health Complex and the power plant, have been authorized by the General Assembly, and a Learning Resources Center and Library Building has been approved by the BHE as part of the capital budget recommendations.

The Classroom Office building has a total Illinois Building authorization of $2.5 million and a federal grant of $277,784.

Location Affects Programs
The BHE resolution, supported by campus authorities, said the location of the VTI on the Carbondale Campus would at-low for more effectual and efficient development of programs of instruction related to and drawing upon other university programs and would permit close cooperation with other university departments and use of the main library.

The resolution proposed that all supporting projects for which funds have been appropriated or recommended and which are necessary to place the Classroom-Office building on the Carbondale Campus become a part of the SIU Board action relative to the relocation.

To comply with Phase III requirements, the move was proposed by the SIU administrative staff following informal discussion with SIU Board members must take place later.

The BHE resolution—and subsequent action by the SIU Board—are dependent upon three conditions:

1—That the results of analyses being made of enrollments and enrollment capacities for public senior institutions support the need on the Carbondale Campus for the space to be provided by the proposed VTI buildings.

2—That details of the cost and funding incorporated in the approved project be appropriately reconciled to the proposed change, and

3—That details relative to the buildings becoming a part of the Carbondale Campus be developed as soon as possible. When these conditions have been met, an amendment to pending legislation will be sought to provide approval for the change in location.

Governor Releases Funds For U of I Dental School

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has released $1 million to the University of Illinois for movable dental equipment in the new College of Dentistry building in Chicago from funds appropriated by the 1970 General Assembly. The college, constructed with state and federal funds and scheduled for completion in February 1972, will accommodate an entering class of 130 dental students.

The governor cited the need for more manpower in the field and for public financial support of education, particularly in the professional health field, in both public and private sectors.

SIU Part of UN Farm Development in Brazil

Herbert L. Portz, professor of plant industries at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, is on a 10-day trip to Brazil to participate in a coordinating committee meeting connected with the SIU-United Nations agricultural development program at the University of Santa Maria (Brazil). Portz is the SIU campus coordinator for the University of Santa Maria program.

Joining Portz in the meeting will be representatives from the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization (the contracting agency) in Rome, Italy; the UNDP (United Nations Development Program) in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and others concerned with the program.

Five SIU agricultural specialists are at the University of Santa Maria helping that institution more fully develop and use its teaching, research and rural extension resources for improving agriculture in that southern region of Brazil. They are William Doerr, who went to Brazil a year ago as the international director of the program; Joe H. Jones, soils specialist; Harold Engeling, adult education specialist; Carl L. Hauser, animal husbandry specialist; and Joe H. Marion, an irrigation specialist. Joining them this month will be Dr. Warren S. Biven, a clinical veterinarian, who came to SIU in February as associate professor of animal industries.

Ogilvie Urges Reform In Judicial System

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has appealed for "far-reaching court reform" in an address before the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission in Chicago.

He asked for commitment of $10 million to finance a two-year program to increase the numbers of court personnel, apply modern technology to court procedures and streamline judicial administration. He declared massive improvements are necessary to avert "total collapse" of the criminal justice system.

The governor's program includes increasing court personnel to insure trial of all criminal cases within 90 days of the accused's arrest; a statewide review of the judicial system and automation of court records; a permanent training program to appraise court personnel of technological and legal developments affecting court operations; a survey of the need of physical facilities across the state and recommendations for effective financing to meet those needs.
